CHAPTER: 13

REFERENCES
REFERENCES
(Asterisk marked references are not seen)

Girach, R.D. & Aminuddin, 1995. Ethnomedicinal uses of plants among the tribals of Singbhum district, Bihar in Ethnobotany 7: 103-107.

*Harshberger, J.W. 1895, The term "Ethnobotany" was first coined, over a century ago, he described it as the study of plants used by primitive and aboriginal people.

known among several tribal societies of India in Ethnobotany 1: 89-100.

Power. 1874 used the terms "Aboriginal botany" which meant study of the plants used by aboriginals for food, medicine, shelter, textiles, fabrics, ornaments, etc.
Radhakrishna, J. 1996. Less known Ethnobotanical plants of Kerala state and their conservation in Ethnobotany 8: 82-84.

Sinha, Rajiv, K. Ethnobotany. 1996. The Renaissance of Traditional Herbal Medicine. INA Shree Publishers, Jaipur.

Vartak, V.D., Kulkarni, D.K. and M.S. Kumbhojkar. 1999. Sustainable use of Biodiversity in Western Ghats of Maharashtra, In Mehrotra, A (Ed.) Conservation and Management of Biological Diversity. Indian Environmental and Forest Managers Association, Bhopal.

