CONTENTS

PREFACE
i-xv

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS
xvi-xvii

CHAPTER I

CUBAN MODEL OF DEVELOPMENT
1-24

- Background of the 1959 Revolution
  - Nature of the 1959 Revolution
  - Features of the Revolution and Political Developments
  - The Economic Condition
- Phases of Cuban Revolution
  - The Missile Crisis of 1962
  - Material Incentives and the Sovietisation of the Economy
  - First Congress of PCC, 1975
  - Constitution of 1976
  - Second Congress of PCC, 1980
- Dynamics of the Revolution and its Contemporary Relevance
- Debate on Political System in Cuba
- Summary and Conclusion

CHAPTER II

CRISIS PERIOD AND RESPONSE OF THE REGIME
25-48

- Revolution in Crisis and the Rectification Campaign
- The Third Party Congress of PCC
  - Some Important Governmental Measures
- “Special Period in Times of Crisis”
  - Economic Impact of the ‘Special Period’
  - Social Impact of the ‘Special Period’
- Summary and Conclusion

CHAPTER III

CONSTITUTIONAL AND ELECTORAL-POLITICAL REFORMS, 1991-95
49-89

- Fourth Congress of PCC, 1991
  - Changes in the PCC Composition
  - Reshaping the Economy
  - Ideological Reformulation
• Constitutional Changes and Electoral-Political Reforms
  - The Political Institutions
    (a) National Assembly of People's Power
    (b) Council of State
    (c) Council of Ministers
  - National Assembly Election, 1993
  - Grass-Roots Participation and Governance
    (a) Role and Power of Provincial Assemblies of People's Power
    (b) Popular Councils
  - An Assessment of the Political-Electoral System in the 1990s

• Civil Society and Mass Organisations
  - Labour Unions and Workers' Parliaments

• Whither Socialist Democracy!

• Summary and Conclusion

CHAPTER IV
ECONOMIC REFORMS AND CHANGE, 1993-95

• Areas and Patterns of Economic Reforms since 1993
  - Agricultural Reforms
  - Self-employment
  - Legalisation of Foreign Hard Currency
  - Fiscal Reforms
  - Exchange Rate and Monetary Reforms

• Restructuring the External Economic Sector
  - Foreign Direct Investment
  - Joint Ventures in Selected Industries
    a. Tourism
    b. Mining
    c. Energy
    d. Telecommunications
    e. Food and Beverage Industry
    f. Tobacco Industry

• Reform to Economic Recovery
  - An Assessment of Economic Restructuring Programme
    (i) Reduction of Fiscal Deficit
    (ii) Outcome of Dollarisation of the Economy
    (iii) Measures to Promote Foreign Direct Investment
    (iv) Decision of Re-authorisation for Own Account Work to Increase Aggregate Supply by Individuals
    (v) Outcome of De-centralisation and De-bureaucratisation of Economic Decision-making
    (vi) Impact of Allowing Market Forces to Influence Prices
      (a) The Reestablishment of “Free” Agricultural Markets
(b) Establishment of "Free" Industrial-Artisan Markets
(vii) The Convertible Peso and Bonuses for Workers in Some Tradables
(viii) Corporate Businesses and Freezing Savings Accounts

CHAPTER V

REVERSAL OF REFORMS OR RETURN TO THE REVOLUTION?

- Pace and Direction of Political Reforms
  - Fifth Congress of PCC in 1997
  - The National Assembly Elections, 1998
  - Strengthening of Cuban Penal Code in 1999
  - The National Assembly Elections, 2003
  - Local-Level Elections, 2007
  - The National Assembly Elections, 2008
  - Cuban Presidential Election, 2008
  - Municipal Elections, 2010
  - Reversal of Reforms after 1997
- Slowdown to Economic Recovery
  - Initiative of De-dollarisation, 2004
    (i) Causes of De-dollarisation
    (ii) Effects of De-dollarisation
  - Propositions during Transition Phase
- Regime Transition or Regime Continuity?: Fidel to Raul
  - Changes Made by Fidel in 2006
    (i) A New President in 2008
    (ii) Reshuffle of 2009

• The Transition Debate
• Summary and Conclusion

CHAPTER VI

ADJUSTMENTS IN EXTERNAL RELATIONS

- Cuba’s Relations with Latin America after Revolution
- Restructuring Economic and Trade Relation with Latin America and Caribbean
  (i) Cuba-Mexico Relations
  (ii) The Relationship with Brazil
  (iii) Relations with Venezuela
  (iv) Cuba and its Caribbean Identity
- Cuba-Canada Cooperation
  (i) Tourism:
  (ii) Human Rights:
(iii) Public Affairs in Cuba

- Cuba-United States Relations
  (i) Torricelli Act, 1992
  (ii) Helms Burton Act, 1996
  (iii) The 'Cuban Five', 2001
  (iv) The Varela Project, 2002

- Relations with the European Union and Other Western Countries
  - Normalisation of Relations with the European Union

- Towards Rebuilding Ties with Russia

- Cuba and the Third World Solidarity
  - Relations with the People's Republic of China
    (i) Agreements with China
  - Cuba-India Relations
    (i) Havana NAM Summit
    (ii) Sports and other Cooperations
    (iii) Cuba-India Trade:

- Summary and Conclusion

CHAPTER VII

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS

REFERENCES