Acknowledgements

At the very outset, I bow my head in reverence to ‘SHRI BALAJI’, for his kind benediction me during all the stages of this thesis.

I would like to give my greatest sense of gratitude to my academic mentor, supervisor and guide Dr. M. L. Sharma, Associate Professor, Department of EAFM, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur for his immense help. Even the ‘shloka’ above, may not express my gratitude for his continued help and guidance to the fullest in my academic endeavor. The confidence and dynamism with which he guided me, needs no elaboration. His way of thinking and converting ideas into something concrete helped me a lot.

I express my thanks to Prof. Kshama Agarwal, Head, Department of EAFM, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur, for all support and research friendly environment provided by her in the department. She also provides good institutional facilities to do the necessary research work.

Words are not sufficient to convey the deep gratitude and debt to my mentor, guru, Prof. T. N. Mathur, Professor, Department of EAFM, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur who motivated me to select the present research topic and inspired me through all phases of my research. His cooperation was incredible, his attitude made impossible things very easy and his academic depth always remained beneficial for me. He helped me to think in right direction and gave me his precious time in spite of having very busy schedule. Besides being an excellent supervisor and guide, during these years I have known Prof. T.N. Mathur to be honest, disciplined but sympathetic human being.

I am heartily thankful to Dr. Mamta Jain, Associate Professor, Department of EAFM, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur for her continued guidance in completing this research work. Her experience and valued suggestions were always available, whenever I approached. Her overly enthusiastic and integral view on research and her mission for providing ‘high quality research work’ has made a deep impression on me and my work.

Mere words will never be enough to express thanks towards my parents Mr. Kripa Shankar Saxena and Mrs. Manju Saxena and Brothers Dr. Umesh Saxena and Mr. Mukesh Saxena and my entire family for bringing me where I am today through their continuous moral support. I feel deep sense of gratitude to them as they formed my vision and taught me the good things that really matter in my life.

I would also like to go on record to appreciate my Best Friend Mr. Suresh Kumar Yadav for his consistent concern towards my professional and personal growth. He kept keen interest in the progress of my work and have been kind enough providing any assistance whenever I required. He has been always there to encourage, motivate and believe in me.

I feel deep sense of gratitude to all the faculty members and other supporting staff (Gokul Ji), department of EAFM, university of Rajasthan, Jaipur for their cooperation, moral support and inspiring words at every stage of our work.

My sincere thanks are also due to the authorities of the central library, University of Rajasthan, for extending their full cooperation by making available the material required for laying the foundation of the study.

Without individually mentioning the names I convey my sincere thanks to all the respondents of the study who spared their valuable time and provided all the necessary information for the research they are indeed one of the key factors in successful completion of my research Work.

I am very grateful and my humble duty to acknowledge to those authors whose work I have quoted in the body of the manuscripts

Last but not the least I express my indebtedness to all those who have not been explicitly mentioned but made substantial contribution to the study.
