ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I owe first and almost thanks to God the almighty, who made it possible for me to bring this work in the present form.

I am thankful to a number of persons for their profound support in helping me to complete this thesis.

First and foremost, I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. A. Ramanamma, my Research Guide, Professor (Rtd.), Department of Sociology, University of Pune. She was a constant source of encouragement and inspiration to me at every stage of this work. I have no words to thank Dr. Ramanamma, who took out her valuable time to discuss each chapter of this thesis, to read and re-read and give valuable suggestions and guidance inspite of her busy schedule. It was indeed a pleasure to work under the guidance of such an amicable and approachable person as Dr. Ramanamma.

I express my deep thanks to Dr. Sunalini Sattoor, Reader (Rtd.) Department of Sociology, University of Pune. without whose help, it was not possible to complete the research. I would like to thank Dr. Hitesh Deka, Principal and Dr. Basant Deka, Lecturer, Handique College, Guwahati for the help given to me. My sincere thanks to Prof. Sharmila Rege, Head of the Department of Sociology, University of Pune.

I wish to acknowledge my gratitude also to the Department Teaching and Non-Teaching staff for their co-operation and help.
My sincere thank to the following institutes for allowing me to use their libraries – Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics (Pune), Jayakar Library, University of Pune, the Library of the Department of Sociology, Library of Guwahati University and District Library of Tezpur (Assam).

I am thankful to my dear friend Srikant Shrikhande who helped me to get books and articles to complete my research work and also thanks to all my other friends. I want to thank all the respondents who patiently answered my questionnaire. I want to thank all my teachers from standard one to Master’s degree who shaped me and made me realize the importance of hard work and good manners.

I want to thank my brother and sisters for their love and affection and encouragement. Finally, I dedicate this work to my dear parents, father (Girish Borah) mother (Kusum Borah) late father-in-law (Vasantrao Wankhede) and mother-in-law (Sumanbai Wankhede) and I acknowledge their help, sympathy and encouragement in my whole life.

I will fail in my duty if I do not thank my dearest husband Mr. Kiran Wankhede, without whose financial help, encouragement, understanding, sacrifice and support was responsible for my completion of my research work.

I also appreciate my dear son Chaitanya who patiently accepted me for working hard and not taking care of him, sometimes. Once again I would like to thanks all of the named and unnamed persons who associated with me for this work and throughout my higher education.
