ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost I would like to extend my gratitude to my advisor Dr. Pratap Kumar Pati, Professor, Department of Biotechnology, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar. His dedication for research and overwhelming attitude to help his students had been solely responsible for completing my work. I thank him for his guidance, encouragement, valuable suggestions and patience throughout the period of my research work and thesis writing. His meticulous scrutiny and scientific approach helped me become better research scholar and accomplish this task.

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Renu Wadhwa and Dr. Sunil C. Kaul, National Institute of Advanced Industrial Science and Technology, Tsukuba, Japan for their keen interest and constructive ideas throughout this work.

My sincere thanks to Mr. P.K. Verma (Head), Department of Biotechnology, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, for all the support. I thank profusely all the faculty members of Department of Biotechnology, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, Prof. Prabjeet Singh, Prof. Gurcharan Kaur, Dr. Ramandeep Kaur, Dr. P.K. Mishra and Mr. Bhupesh Kumar for their kind help and insightful suggestions during my study period.

I gratefully acknowledge the support provided by my labmates Baldev, Navdeep, Varinder, Rupam, Shivani, Ashutosh, Isha, Gurpreet, Manish and Kuldeep for their assistance and cooperation during my Ph.D. work. I will not miss the opportunity to thank Mr. Vijay Kumar, our lab technician for his kind help during the course of my work. I also wish to thank Gundeep, Supreet, Shiv, Arun, Santosh and Rachna for creating a jovial environment over these crucial years.

Of course, I would like to thank non teaching staff Mr. Jasveer Singh, Mr. Shiv Kumar, Mr. Kewal Kumar, Mr. Harbhajan Singh, Mr. Rakesh Bhandari, Mr. Sonu, Mr. Goldy and Mr. Savinder for providing information, support on different aspects during the completion of my research work.

I am delighted to thank next set of people, my dearest friends Tanima and Harsimran for all the unconditional support. Your help professionally and personally was imperative in completion of my degree. Thanks for helping and guiding me in both my lows and highs.

I would like to thank my family for all their affection and kindness. Last but not least, I am indebted to my parents, whom value to me only grows with age. Their unconditional love and support have helped me in all spheres of life and also in completion of this degree. I also thank my brother for his support and love. Above all I thank god for countless blessings.
