Acknowledgement

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to all those without whom I would not have been able to complete this work. The first and foremost, I am extremely thankful to GOD the almighty, who is with me throughout my life.

I also express my sincere gratitude to Dr. M.V. Natesan, who provided me his generous support, encouragement and inspiration all through this work. It is his impeccable and persuasive guidance, constructive suggestions which have moulded my work in the present shape. I express my deepest sense of gratitude to him.

After that, I acknowledge all teachers of Sanskrit Vyakarana department, especially Dr. A. Girija and Dr. M. Manimohan. They gave me time and attention whenever I approached them. They provided me valuable suggestions and criticism which have been useful in improving the quality of my research.

I am thankful to Dr. T. Resmy (Associate Professor, Department of Samhitha, Samskritha, and Siddhantha, Government Ayurveda College, Dhanwanthari Nagar, Tripunithura,) thoroughly discussed with me my topic and suggested techniques of solving this problem.

I am obliged to acknowledge my classmates, M.V. Sudish, Pankaja Kumar Bhoi, Praseeja, P.R. Anu, K. Udaya and V.T. Soumya. They gave immense moral courage in the course of my writing. They were always eager to know about the progress of my work till I completed.

My villagers’ continuous support and cooperation have great role in completing the research work in this way.

I am also thankful to my friends, N. Shereef, A.K. Khaleel, Jahfar Ayyakath, K.K. Iqbal, P.T Jamshad, Edoli Anas, Muhsina Ismail and C.P Nehra for their constant motivation and invaluable sacrifice throughout my studies.

Lastly but most importantly, I like to thank Sree Shankaracharya University of Sanskrit, Kalady for providing such an academic and intellectual platform for me.

Abdul Rasheed K.