ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my honor and privilege to express my sincere and heartfelt thanks to my esteemed supervisor Dr. P. Chowdappa, Former Principal scientist and National Network Coordinator, Outreach programme on ALCOCERA and Presently Director, Central Plantation Crops Research Institute, Kasaragod- 671 124. He incessantly, persuasively suggested a spirit of research and guidance throughout my research. This thesis would not have been concluded without his buoyancy and flow of ideas at the time of difficulties and his encouragement at key times is very much appreciated.

I extend my sincere thanks to my Co-supervisor Dr. V. Krishna, Chairman and Professor, Department of Post Graduate studies and Research in Biotechnology and Bioinformatics, Kuvempu University for his invariable support for being supple about the research and for always being ready to guide and suggest unsullied perception.

I dedicate this work to my parents Mr. P.T. Puttaswamy and Mrs. Parvathi M. for their Sacrifice, patience and encouragement to pursue down my interest. Without their parental guidance and support, I would not have made this achievement in my life. I also dedicate this work to my beloved wife Mrs. Bhavya S., and to my younger sister Mrs. Chaitra Jagadish for their patience and cooperation in completion of my thesis.

A very special thanks to my brother in law Mr. Jagadish V. and to my niece Kumari Anushka J. for always being so conceited of my achievements.

I present my heartfelt thanks to Head, Division of Plant Pathology, Indian Institute of Horticultural Research, Hesaraghatta, Bengaluru, and all Scientists of Division of Plant Pathology, Indian Institute of Horticultural Research, Hesaraghatta, Bengaluru, for their encouragement and co-operation during the course of my research.

"Even let us not forget that the cultivation of the earth is the most important labor of man. When tillage begins, other arts will follow. The farmers, therefore, are the founders of civilization".
-Daniel Webster

I duly dedicate my thesis to all farmers of India, for their sacrifice, hard work, and dedication and for being a strong pillar of this country.

Finally, I solicit constant blessings from lord Hanuman, without whom I would never have come so far in life.
