Acknowledgement

In the first place, I should extend my gratitude to my parents Prof. Sankari Prasad Basu and Smt. Maya Basu.

In masterminding the research paper, my deepest reverence to Prof. (Dr.) Samir Kumar Mukherjee, who has helped me a lot in grasping the subject through his thoughtful supervision. No doubt, without him, this thesis paper would not have been come into the light of the day.

I would like to convey my sincere thankfulness and gratitude to Prof. (Dr.) Chhanda Das, Convener and other honorable members of the Ph.D. Committee, Department of Museology, University of Calcutta.

I would also like to convey my gratitude to Prof. (Dr.) Sudip Basu of the Viswa Bharati University (my elder brother) for his generous help in preparing this thesis.

Master Shamik Basu, my son, with his entire joyful attitude, is a standing inspiration always to me.

I am indebted to numerous institutions and individuals.

The museums and institutions where I have worked – Town Hall, Mahajati Sadan, Victoria Memorial Hall, Calcutta Police Museum, Indian Association, Ancestral House of Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay, Swami Vivekananda, Sri Aurobindo, Rabindranath Tagore, Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose and Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya.

I owe much to the general library and Museum and Art Gallery of the Ramakrishna Mission Institute of Culture, Gol Park, Kolkata.

Among individuals, I express my deep appreciation of all the help and advice received from Smt. Anindita Basu, Sri Dibyendu Hota (my beloved teacher), Sri Bijoy Nag (Secretary, ‘Joysee’), Sri Tarun Kumar Mitra, Sri Arun Ghose, Sri Somnath Mukherjee, Sri Ramaprasanna Bhattacharya, Dr. Arijit Banerjee, Dr. Joy Bhattacharya, Sri Prabir Sanyal, Ms. Sampa Mishra, Ms. Nabanita Ganguly, Sri Asis Chakraborty and Sri Debdutta Gupta.

Sankha Basu