

LIST OF PLATES

Chapter 1		Page No
Plate No. 1.1	Sal forest area of South West Bengal	5A
Plate No. 1.2	Regenerated Sal forest in Keshiary Range, West Medinipur district	5A
Plate No. 1.3	Forest tea garden interface in North Bengal	5A
Plate No. 1.4	Rich under growth and biodiversity in the forest of North Bengal	5A
Plate No. 1.5	Estuarine mangrove forest in Sundarban	5A
Chapter 5
Plate No. 5.1	Three tier Natural Forest in North Bengal	46A
Plate No. 5.2	Biodiversity in Natural Forest in North Bengal	46A
Plate No. 5.3	A Hundred years old Teak Tree in Uttar Kalamati, Jalpaiguri	46A
Plate No. 5.4	Water Channels within Lataguri Forest	46B
Plate No. 5.5	Natural Sal forest of North Bengal	46B
Plate No. 5.6	Natural Sal forest regenerated after protection by the JFMCs in Patrasyer Range, Bankura	47A
Plate No. 5.7	Sal forest of South West Bengal	47A
Plate No. 5.8	One year old Sal coppice regeneration in South West Bengal	47A
Plate No. 5.9	Eucalyptus plantation in South West Bengal	47A
Plate No. 5.10	Mixed plantation in South West Bengal	47A

Plate No.5.11	Pneumatophores – a typical feature of mangrove forest	47B
Plate No. 5.12	Mangrove Plantation raised in the Mudflats along Bidyadhari river Sundarban	47B
Plate No. 5.13	Typical Mangrove plantation along River Herobhanga	47B
Plate No. 5.14	Sundari tree in Herobhanga beat office	47C
Plate No. 5.15	Mangrove plantation in mudflats	47C

Chapter 6

Plate No. 6.1	Mudflats of Sundarban	51A
Plate No. 6.2	Mangrove plants on the mudflats	51A
Plate No. 6.3	Mudflats during low tide	51A
Plate No. 6.4	Erosion of Lateritic Soil – Bankura, South West Bengal	54B
Plate No. 6.5	Encrustations used as construction material – Bankura, South West Bengal	54B
Plate No. 6.6	Soil erosion problems in lateritic zone of South West Bengal	54B
Plate No.6.7	Top Soil erosion problem in Lateritic zones of West Medinipur	54C
Plate No. 6.8	Plantation Forest with lack of under growth exposed the soil for erosion in South West Bengal	54C
Plate : 6.9	Tisi an important oil seed cultivated in Bankura	54D
Plate No. 6.10	Land use with forest, Tea garden and paddy field in North Bengal	54D
Plate No. 6.11	Corn, a major cash crop and favorite food for elephants in Dalgaon, Jalpaiguri	54D
Plate No. 6.12	Jute a major cash crop in Jalpaiguri	54D

Plate No. 6.13 Fisheries in Sundarban 54D

Chapter 7

Plate No. 7.1 Boulder deposition on Jaldhaka river bed 64A

Plate No. 7.2 Rover Jaldhanka bordering Nagrakata village 64A

Plate No. 7.3 Flood plain of River Nandi 64A

Plate No. 7.4 Herobhanga River flowing on the southern side of Jharkhali 65A

Plate No. 7.5 Mangrove plantation along Herobhanga River 65A

Plate No. 7.6 Sundarban Project Tiger Area along Bidyadhari River 65A

Chapter 8

Plate No. 8. 1 Discussion at Patrasayer Range office, Bankura 76A

Plate No. 8.2 Sharing of experiences by members of Birshingha JFMCs 76A

Plate No. 8.3 Forest Trail with Range officer, Beat Officer and Forest Guard of Sarugara 76A

Plate No. 8.4 Budhilal Saiba, Secretary, Shorea Nature Centre sharing his experience 76A

Plate No. 8.5 Lakshmi Roy of Purba Lataguri sharing her experiences 78A

Plate No. 8.6 FGD with members of Sukani Basti, Nagrakata, Jalpaiguri 78A

Plate No. 8.7 Discussion with the beat officer, Uttar Kalamati, Jalpaiguri 78A

Plate No. 8.8 Construction of embankment along river Bidyadhari to protect against flood, Sundarban 78A

Plate No. 8.9 Discussion with BO, Herobhanga and JFMC members – Sundarban 78A

Chapter 9

Plate No. 9.1	Stitching of Sal leaf plates – a common practice in South West Bengal	90A
Plate No. 9.2	Collection of Tender Sal Leaves from coppice forest in South West Bengal	90A
Plate No. 9.3	Bamboo an important NTFP in West Medinipur District	90A
Plate No. 9.4	Black pepper cultivation in North Bengal	91A
Plate No. 9.5	Wild orchid – high value NTFP in Lataguri Forest, Jalpaiguri	91A
Plate No. 9. 6	Mangrove nursery under Herobhanga beat, Matla Range	92A
Plate No. 9. 7	Boat an important means for earning livelihood in Sundarban	92A
Plate No. 9.8	Fishing in Sundarban	92A
Plate No. 9.9	Tiger prawn collection in Sundarban	92A

Chapter 10

Plate No. 10.1	Sal leaf plat making in Nayagram Range, West Medinipur	122A
Plate No. 10.2	Bamboo basket making	122A
Plate No. 10.3	Use of Sal leaf plat making machine in West Medinipur	122 A
Plate No. 10.4	Kalachand Sikh of Na grakata sharing his experience of NTFP processing	123 A
Plate No. 10.5	Medicinal plants in Bankura	123 A
Plate No. 10. 6	Construction of Canal and Canal bank plantation in Jharkhali – IV JFMC	128A

Plate No. 10.7	Assets created under NREGS - Sundarban	128A
Plate No. 10.7A	Fish collection point in the canals at Sundarban	128A
Plate No. 10.8	Construction of Jetty on Bidyadhari river	128 B
Plate No. 10.9	Power tiller given to Jharkhali – III JFMC in Sundarban	128 B
Plate No. 10.10	Construction of road in Jharkhali – II JFMC – Sundarban	128 B
Plate No. 10.11	Use of Solar Power - Sundarban	128 B
Plate No. 10.12	Ponds constructed in the forest area for soil moisture conservation	130 A
Plate No. 10.13	Community hall constructed by the Forest Department	130 A
Plate No. 10.14	Solar light provided by the Forest Department	130 A
Plate No. 10.15	Ceased Timber at Chalsa Range Office	131A
Plate No. 10.16	Boat seized for fishing without permit	131A
Plate No. 10.17	Timber operations by involving the JFMC members	131A
Plate No. 10.18	Vegetation monitoring by the JFMC members in West Medinipur	131A
Plate No. 10.19	Cafeteria run by members of Bedgara JFMC in Shorea Nature Centre	133A
Plate No. 10.20	Newly constructed Cottage at Garuchira basti, Jalpaiguri	133A
Plate No. 10.21	Bidhan Chhetri of Garuchira basti sharing their plan for Eco-tourism development	133A
Plate No. 10.22	Canal used for irrigation and Pisciculture – Tridib Nagar, Sundarban	134A
Plate No. 10.23	Bibek Mistry trained in Tiger trapping, sharing his experience	134A