I lift my heart in sincere gratitude to God Almighty, for the blessings showered upon me during the course of study. The strength and courage which was extended to me helped in completing this strenuous work.

Prof. Dr. K. S. Kumari, my research guide, Head of the Dept. of Home Science (Rtd), St. Teresa’s College, Ernakulam, for her gracious guidance, love and affection, valuable and precious suggestions throughout the research work which contributed to the completion of the study. I express my sincere gratitude to her.

Rev. Sr. Christabelle, The Principal, St. Teresa’s College, Ernakulam for the timely help and support for the successful completion of the study.

I am indebted to Mahatma Gandhi University Kottayam for providing me an opportunity to register for PhD and all the help there on for the fulfillment of academic requisites at different stages of the study.

With a deep sense of gratitude I do acknowledge the technical support extended by Dr. V. D. Manjula, Associate Professor, Department of Community Medicine, Medical College Alappuzha, and her colleagues Dr. Sajitha, and Dr. Rashmi, for conducting medical screening of the sample in medical camps organised at different slum locations.

My heartfelt thanks are also due to Mr. Ajay Tharayil, and All Kerala Chemist and Druggist Association for supplying the required medicines during the conduct of medical camp and I would like to place on records my thanks to Mr. Unnikrishnan, Pharmacist of E.S.I. Hospital, Kochi for helping me to distribute medicines to the beneficiaries of the camp.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. A. Laxmaiah, Assistant Director of Community Studies in National Institute of Nutrition, Hyderabad for his valuable suggestions, and also to the librarians, National Institute of Nutrition, Hyderabad; CDS Thiruvananthapuram and St. Teresa’s College, Ernakulam for their help in the collection of literature pertaining to the study.

I owe my heartfelt thanks to Mr. Girish Babu, Assistant Director, Economics and Planning Division for the statistical analysis of data and Mr. Tony Paul Jose, Ms. Hima and Ms. Smitha for helping me in the data entry process.
I am also thankful to Dr. Shiny K. J. Assistant Professor, K.K.T.M. College Kodungallore and Mrs. Mary Agnes and Mrs. Annie, U. D. clerk, St. Teresa’s College, Ernakulam for their help and support during the course of this study.

I would like to thank specially Mr. P. P. Jacob, who had been of great help in securing permission and cooperation from Corporation counsellors as well as anganwadi teachers for the smooth conduct of the study in their respective areas.

I would also like to thank Mr. Thomas Sebastian, Mr. Ganesh Prabhu, Mr. Jayakumar, Peter, T. Venu, Mrs. Pushpa, Ms. Sumi and Ms. Bindhu. M., who were helpful in the successful conduct of the medical camp.

A special word of thanks is also due to Dr. Elizabeth, District Health Officer and staff of Urban Poverty Alleviation Department and Corporation of Kochi, Ernakulam for providing valuable information on urban slums and population statistics.

I extend my sincere thanks to Mr. Syam Lal.V and Mr. Abdulsalam for having helped me in the preparation of the manuscript.

My heartfelt thanks to my mother Mrs. Starry Princela and my father Late Sri. J. Godwin, for the moral support and encouragement throughout the study.

Words are not enough to thank my husband Mr. N. V. Thayappan, for his constant support, encouragement and cooperation extended during the study, without which I would not have completed this doctoral project.

No words can express my indebtedness to my child Anurag who had to suffer a lot of pain and loneliness during the period of study.

I acknowledge my in- laws for their cooperation and support in all stages of the research work.

I would like to thank Sr. Dr. Alphonsa M.K., the Principal, and the staff of Morning Star Home Science College, Angamaly for being a source of inspiration and motivation.

With a deep sense of gratitude I remember all mothers and preschool children and the members of their families for their sincere help and cooperation all through the study which facilitated the data collection process smooth and successful.

Lizmitha Godwin