ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Firstly, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my advisor Prof. N. Sukumar for providing me valuable guidance right from course selection through thesis submission. I thank him for his patience, motivation, knowledge and immense faith in my capabilities. Prof. Sukumar’s able guidance and moral support at every step during the research helped me evolve and boost my confidence in writing of this thesis. I could not have imagined having a better advisor for my Ph.D.

I also take this opportunity to thank my co-advisor Dr. Subhabrata Sen for his continuous support during my Ph.D. study and related research. His never ending zest for research and motivating nature has always been a guiding force for me to outperform myself at every stage.

I extend my sincere thanks to Dr. Sudeepto Bhattacharya for helping me to understand the concepts of graph theory and their application in chemistry. I also thank Dr. Gouriprasanna Roy, the Chair of Doctoral Committee, for his valuable time and inputs throughout my research.

I also extend my thanks to Dr. Jayaraman Valadi for his valuable inputs in helping me to understand and develop QSAR modelling. I am especially thankful to Dr. Parthapratim Munshi for his help in elucidating the x-ray crystallographic data.

I also thank Dr. Michael P. Krein for his support in helping me improve my programming skills and also for the hard questions, which drove me to push my limits. I profusely thank Dr. Shailja Singh for her support to carry out biological studies for DOS library compounds.

I thank Dr. Susanta Sinha Roy for his guidance in helping me sail through the nanotechnology coursework. I also thank Dr. Bimlesh Lochab for her valuable guidance in helping me understand the concepts of Polymer Chemistry and Dr. Ram Sagar Mishra for his guidance in the drug designing coursework.

I take this opportunity to thank Dr. Niteesh Sahni for helping me learn the basics of Python programming. My special thanks to Dr. Vijay Kumar for his guidance in Density Functional Theory and also for his constructive inputs for improving my presentation skills.

My sincere thanks also goes to Prof. Rupamanjari Ghosh for her unprecedented support, assurance and sponsorship approvals that helped me gain international exposure during the course of my Ph.D. I also extend my heartfelt thanks to Dr. Sunanda Sukumar for being an invisible but very strong force of motivation right from my day one in the university.

I thank my lab mate and friend, Mr. Vivek Ananth RP for his invaluable guidance in helping me learn Python scripts. I thank Ms. Vijeta Sharma and Ms. Poonam Dangi for their support in biological evaluations of DOS libraries. I take this opportunity to thank Mr. Rahul Agarwal, my room-mate, lab mate and friend, for all his support in understanding the concepts of programming in Cheminformatics study.

My special thanks to Mr. Ravikanth Upadhyay, my friend and batchmate for all the constructive discussions, last minute help and moral support. I also thank Mr. Jyotirmoy Dutta, and Mr. Pradeep Kumar Sundarraj for the help in making me understand various aspects of nano sciences. A special mention to Mr. Ashish Kushwaha for always being the friend in need throughout my tenure at Shiv Nadar University. I thank Mr. Shripal, Mr. Naveen and Ms. Deepti, the lab technicians in the Department of Chemistry for their support.

I express my gratitude to the Department of Chemistry – School of Natural Sciences, Shiv Nadar University for all the facilities and other technical support required during the research.

I am grateful to Shiv Nadar University for providing me an opportunity to pursue Ph.D., by awarding tuition fee and special fee waiver in addition to the Research Fellowship. This helped me to sustain myself financially during the research period and provided me the much required motivation to quit my job in a pharma major and take up the Ph.D course. It is indeed a great honour to be a part of the first batch of Ph.D. graduates from Shiv Nadar University.

I cherished every moment at Shiv Nadar University largely due to the many good friends who became a part of my life. I am grateful for the time spent with my roommates and for the wonderful memories, which I am going to treasure for the times to come.

I take this opportunity to thank my special friends Mr. Binayak Kumar, Ms. Swapnil Shukla, Ms. Jaya Shukla, Mr. Narendra Shukla, Ms. Gunjan Ojha, Mr. Arabinda Barman, Mr. Chetan Kumar Saini, Mr. Kunal Kumar, Mr. Pinaki Saha, Mr. Chandramohan Bathula, Mr. Shantanu Hati, Mr. Mainak Banerjee, Mr. Chintam Narayana, Mr. Barla Rajkumar, Mr. Ashish Chalana, Mr. Gaurav Bhattacharya, Mr. Naveen Kumar, Mr. Shashi Kumar Srivastava, Mr. Indranil Bhattacharjee, Suman Kumar Mandal, Mr. Ramesh Karri, Mr. Richards Joe, Mr. Ganesh Lenin, Ms. Deepika Chauhan, Ms. Amrita Dubey, Ms. Shubhra Agarwal, Ms. Tania Luthra, Ms.
Ayana, Ms. Garima Singh, Mr. Basharat Bhat for making my time cheerful at Shiv Nadar University.

A special note of thanks to my friends Mrs. Bhagya, Mr. Sanjay Madurkar, Mr. Bhaskar Reddy, Mr. Rajani, Mr. Hari Prakash, Mr. Chaitanya, Mr. Umesh, Mr. Prabhaker, Mr. N.S. Venugopal & family for all their help and moral support.

I would like to thank my parents (Mr. Janardhan Prabhu and Mrs. Saraswathi Prabhu), spouse (Pratima Prabhu), son (Pragyan Prabhu), siblings (Girish Prabhu, Subhash Prabhu, Jyothi Shanubhogue), parents-in-law (Mr. U.P. Shenoy and Mrs. Bharathi Shenoy) and other family members (Prashant Shenoy, Poornima Baliga and Padma Venkatesh) for being the pillar of strength in all my pursuits. Without your moral support, I would not have accomplished my long cherished dream of pursuing a doctorate.

Last but not the least, I thank the Lord Almighty for being the spiritual guiding force through all the ebbs and flows of life.
