ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to gratefully acknowledge and sincerely thank all those special people who have assisted me in the development and completion of this thesis:

Prof. Dr. Aditi Ghosh, my respected guide whose methodical, incisive, critical, and scholarly reviews of this study, have been invaluable in guiding it to its fruition. I have been able to undertake and reach this milestone only because of her blessings, guidance and support at every step of my way. I am deeply indebted to her.

The late Rev. Dr. Gerard (Babu) Beckers, SJ (1924 - 2006) inspired me to take up the challenge of conducting this research. His enthusiasm, encouragement, guidance, support and suggestions, motivated me to proceed further in this research with confidence and ‘courage’. I dedicate this thesis to the memory of this great soul. It is a humble tribute to a life spent in selfless service to the poor and the marginalized.

Rev. Fr. Jeyaraj Velusamy, SJ, the present Provincial of the Calcutta Province of the Society of Jesus for his support and encouragement.

Rev. Dr. Felix Raj, SJ, the Principal of St. Xavier’s College (Autonomous), Kolkata for giving me his kind permission from the college to conduct this research along with my regular academic, teaching, community outreach and co-curricular activities.

Rev. Dr. George Pattery, SJ, the former Provincial of the Calcutta Province of the Society of Jesus, for his kind permission to carry out this research. His enthusiasm, support and blessings were a constant source of encouragement for me along this journey.
Rev. Fr. Jerome Francis, SJ, the former Provincial of the Calcutta Province of the Society of Jesus for his kind permission to conduct this research.

I would like to thank the Principals of the six schools - Rev. Dr. Paul Arockiam, SJ, Principal of St. Xavier’s School, Burdwan; Rev. Fr. Benny Thomas, SJ, Principal of St. Xavier’s Collegiate School, Kolkata; Rev. Fr. M.S. Arockiasamy, SJ, Principal of St. Xavier’s School, Durgapur; Rev. Fr. K.T. Thomas, Principal of St. Xavier’s School, Haldia; Rev. Fr. Kurian Emprail, SJ, Principal of St. Lawrence School, Kolkata and Mr. Amit Chatterjee, Principal of St. Paul’s High School, Raghabpur for giving their kind permission and extending their wholehearted support to conduct the survey in their schools.

I would also like to thank the students who participated enthusiastically in this study and the school personnel who assisted me with collecting the required data and information during my many visits to the schools for data collection.

Rev. Dr. Franklin Menezes for his encouragement, support and readiness to help whenever I required it.

Rev. Fr. Albert Huart, SJ, Rev. Dr. Peter Lourdes, SDB, Rev. Fr. P.C. Matthew, SJ and Rev. Fr. Pat Eaton, SJ and for their suggestions, encouragement and blessings.

My dear friends Susan Surtee, Susan Wilcox, Rev. Dr. James Ponnaiah and Rev. Fr. Jimmy Keepuram, SJ, and Warren Brown for their encouragement. I would like to thank my parents Aleyamma and Donald Simpson, my sister Delphene Mylaraswamy and my brother in law Dinkar Mylaraswamy for their encouragement and blessings. I would also like to thank my daughter Roshnee Agnes Veigas and my husband, Kirtikiran Veigas for their encouragement, inspiration and support along this journey.
