CONTENT

1) BACKGROUND
United States support to Indian cause of independence - In particular, the role of President Roosevelt during the Second World War, Transfer of power, 1947, Emergence of India as a Republic 1950.

2) INDIA'S FOREIGN POLICY OF NON-ALIGNMENT
Cold War and India's attitude - United States suspicion and criticism of non-alignment as immoral - Relation developed as one between two unfriendly friends.

During this entire decade Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru was India's Foreign Minister and United States Policy was shaped by President Truman, April 12, 1945 - Jan 29, 1953, and President Eisenhower, January 20, 1953 - January 20, 1961.

3) CHINA, INDIA AND THE UNITED STATES
Indo-United States relation during those period of India's argument in favour of China's entry into United Nations Organisation.

4) KOREA, INDIA & UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
India's peaceful approach and initiative for a contact between the United States and United Soviet Socialist Republic - Armistice negotiations and India's role.

Contd..
5) INDO-CHINA, INDIA & UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
93 - 110

India's crucial role in the Vienna Negotiation - 1954 partition and neutralisation of Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos assessment of Indo-United States relations in this background.

6) INDIA, PAKISTAN & UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
111 - 146

United States support to Pakistan against India, and Defence Treaty of 1954 created tension between India & United States of America - India has always repudiated this aspect of United States Policy.

7) INDO-UNITED STATES ECONOMIC RELATIONS 1950-60
141 - 199

Politics of Foreign Aid, Security Grant and various form of aid.

8) CONCLUSION
200 - 203

Shared values - Conflicting interpretation of national interests Need of greater understanding despite differences.

9) BIBLIOGRAPHY
204 - 210.