Acknowledgement

I am immensely indebted to my supervisor Dr. Ruby Sain for her right guidance, constant support and encouragement.

My heartfelt gratitude is also due to Dr. Sanghamitra Mukherjee, Ex-Principal, Lady Brabourne College, Kolkata, for her encouragement and cooperation. I must also thank Dr. Siuli Sarkar, Principal, Lady Brabourne College, Kolkata for honest support and co-operation.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank Ms. Anita Mukherjee, Head of the Department, Department of Sociology, Lady Brabourne College, Kolkata, for her support and cooperation. Thanks are due to all my colleagues at the Department of Sociology, Lady Brabourne College, Kolkata and Dr. Sudeshna Basu Mukherjee, Head, Department of Sociology, University of Calcutta for their valuable advice and cooperation.

I have drawn immensely from the following libraries:

Central library of Jadavpur University, National Library, Kolkata, United States Information Services Library, Kolkata, British Council Library, Kolkata, Centre for Social Science Studies Library, Kolkata, Lady Brabourne College Library, Kolkata, Ratan Tata Library, Delhi University, New Delhi. I wish to thank the management and staff of the abovementioned libraries for their help and cooperation.

My effort was augmented by the knowledge and information drawn from Deer Lodge library, Winnipeg, Canada and from the Library of the University of Manitoba, Winnipeg, Canada. I wish to thank Prof. Howard Davidson and Prof. Lori Wilkinson of the University of Manitoba, Winnipeg, Canada for giving me access to those libraries.

Special thanks are due to the office staff of ward nos. 65, 69 & 70 of the Kolkata Municipal Corporation for providing me with the respective ward maps and census data.

I am indebted to my student Ms. Shailly Shah, her father Mr. Pramod Shah and family for introducing me to most of my respondents. I could never have gained access to my respondents and to the old age home “Apna Ashiana” at Tarakeshwar, Hooghly, without the help of Mr. Pramod Shah.

I am thankful to the respondents, including the inmates of “Apna Ashiana” for sharing their thoughts and experiences with me. I also wish to thank my respondents’ families and the management and staff of “Apna Ashiana” for the warm hospitality extended to me during my visits.

I would also like to express my deep gratitude to my husband, son, in-laws and parents despite whom this work could never have been possible.
