FAMOUS STOCK TRADERS OR STOCK INVESTORS

- Bernard Baruch
- José Berardo
- Warren Buffett
- Jim Cramer
- Nicolas Darvas
- Philip Fisher
- William Delbert Gann
- Benjamin Graham
- John W. Henry
- John Maynard Keynes, the famous economist, was a very successful stock investor.
- Edward Lampert
- Jesse Lauriston Livermore
- Peter Lynch
- William O'Neil
- Isaac Newton, the famous physicist, lost some of his money due to speculation in The South Sea Company stock in the 1720s. Isaac Newton lost over 20,000 pounds (£1.68 million in today's money) of his fortune. As a result of this crisis, he stated "I can calculate the motions of heavenly bodies, but not the madness of people".
- David Ricardo, the famous political economist, joined his father at the London Stock Exchange, where he began to learn about the workings of finance. This beginning set the stage for Ricardo's later success in the stock market.
- Jim Rogers
- George Soros
- John Templeton
- Jules Verne, the famous writer, was a stock trader and broker at the Paris Stock Exchange (La Bourse de Paris).
- Martin Zweig