Acknowledgements

I am highly indebted to my supervisor Prof. M.H. Qureshi for his scholarly guidance and continuous personal encouragement throughout this work. In fact, it is his unbounded parental affection which stimulated me to complete this work about which I have never dreamed. Due to his unique approach of supervision, in which he provides all possible space to his students in developing their own ideas, this work full of drudgery has become a pleasant experience for me. Further, the principles of honesty, straightforwardness, simplicity and above all humanism which I learnt from him, provided me strength and direction to navigate this ocean full of storms. I offer my heartfelt gratitude.

I also wish to record my thanks to Prof. G.K. Chadha and Dr. R.K. Sharma for their help in some methodological questions.

I extend a special note of appreciation to villagers and revenue officials (patwaris) of the sample villages for giving me their time, information and insights. But, it would be impossible to list them all here. Therefore, while asking for the forgiveness of all those whom I have not listed here but who remain deeply imbedded in my heart, I would, nonetheless, like to thanks Messers Nawab, Lallu Ram, Naresh Dharwal, Bharat, Surjit Singh, Satpal and Daulat Ram of Bai, Kutabgarh, Sirsama, Pipli, Lohgarh, Kheranwali and Lilas villages respectively, and Messers Mahipal, Ram Singh and Amar Singh of Kalali Village.

I am also grateful to Messers Madan Mohan and K. Verghese of Computer Cartographic Laboratory, CSRD, and to Mr. Satyendra Kumar and Mrs. Sis Kaur of Computer Centre, SSS for extending all possible help and cooperation during the analysis of data.

I owe special obligations to my friend Shah Nawaz for always standing by me at all stages of present work. I am also thankful to my friends Anil, Mahabir, Muntaz, Rajeshwari, Suraj Bhan, Bhupender, Surender, I.P. Singh, Vinod, Satish, Jitender and Rakesh for their help and encouragement.

It is a great honour to acknowledge my gratitude to Mrs. Najama Qureshi and Shehla who never let me feel that I was staying away from my family. I can never forget the emotional support provided by family members, especially my maternal grand mother and father, who patiently endured the trials and tribulations with the expectations that one day things would change for better.

Last but not least, I am thankful to whole staff of A.P. Computers for typing the thesis with care and precision.

Suresh Kumar