ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is not possible to acknowledge the enormous and significant contribution of a large number of people in India and England who have not only provided material for this research but also helped in shaping ideas from time to time. Among those whose contributions remain outstanding is my supervisor DR. PRAKASH C. JAIN, who devoted his resounding knowledge and vast experience in this research work and patiently moulded my efforts into the present shape of this manuscript. I am indeed profoundly indebted to him for his inspiration, affection, and guidance that sustained my spirit to complete this research even in the face of heavy odds.

It is my foremost privilege to offer my thanks to Professor Derek Hopwood of the Middle East Centre, Oxford University who never tired in giving his valuable comments about my work during my field study trip to London. I am also thankful to Professor A.H.H. Abidi, Professor K.R. Singh, Professor Mohammad Sadiq, Professor Vijay Gupta, Dr. Gulshan Dietl, Dr. Girijesh Pant, Dr. A.K. Pasha and other faculty members of the Centre for West Asian and African Studies, J.N.U., for their kind help and encouragement. My thanks are also due to Professor Nandu Ram, Centre for the Study of Social Systems, Dr. S.K. Thorat, Associate Professor, Centre for the Study of Regional Development and Dr. Tulsi Ram, Associate Professor, Centre for Soviet and East European Studies, who have not only been a source of inspiration but helped me as my guardian in J.N.U.

I am extremely grateful to Mary J. Auckland, Librarian, and R.C. Dogra, Principal Assistant Librarian of the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London; Mrs. Tyacke, Public Record office; G.M. Shaw, Deputy Director, The British Library; Eric C. Watchman, Sub Librarian, University of Durham; J. Reajnold, Head, Cambridge University Library; Miss S.J. Boyde, Librarian, The Royal Institute of International Affairs; Colin Stevenson, Deputy Librarian, University of Bristol, who helped me in accessing materials in their libraries during my visit to London.

I would like to record my thankfulness to Mrs & Mr A.S. Grewal, Dr. Yasawant Singh and Dr Sarita Verma in London who had not only accommodated me as a family member but also inspired me to complete my work.

I am indebted to my parents for their impatient support and encouraged me to reach up to this place. I am sure that this work would not have been in the present shape without the constant encouragement of my uncle Dr. K.D. Ram and Aunt Dr. (Smt) Lalti Devi who have been a source of inspiration to me. I would like to acknowledge with particular thanks to my brothers and sisters, Er. Sheo Prasad, Rajendra Prasad, Nagendra Prasad, Rajesh Kumar Rahul and Km. Priyanka Dimpi, Shilpi Anand and Garima Anand, who have kept me morally high to fulfil the aspiration of the family by completing Ph.D. work.

I am also extremely greatful to all my friends, Mr Shashi Kant, S.K. Biswas, Thomas Mathew, Ram Raj, N. Manohar
Prasad, Udayee Ram, Ved Prakash, Uma Kant, Raj Kumar, Ram Chandra, Lyakat Ali, Dr. Baliram, G.S. Prasad, L. Kenadi, Lal Chand, Abhay Kumar, S.B. Prasad, Santanu Kumar Das, Shushil Kumar, A. Sudhakar Reddy, Dr. Faruq Ansari, Bhim Sen Hantal and many others for their time worthy help and encouragement.

The present work was mainly carried out in the libraries of Jawaharlal Nehru University, Delhi University, Aligarh Muslim University, Nehru Memorial Museum and Library, National Archives, Parliament House Library, Central Secretariat Library, Institute of Defence Study and Analysis (IDSA), British Council Library. I acknowledge with thanks for ungrudging support and cooperation and assistance of the staff of these libraries.

My thanks also due to the Embassy of the Arab Republic of Egypt for supplying me necessary literature.

MAHENDRA PRATAP RANA

New Delhi
July 1996