Acknowledgement

This thesis is the outcome of a long rigorous journey in which I have been encouraged and supported by many people. It is indeed a pleasant moment to express my gratitude for them.

First and foremost, praises and thanks to the God, the Almighty, for His showers of blessings throughout my research work to complete the research successfully.

I would like to express my special appreciation and thanks to my supervisor Professor Dr. Amar K Chandra, who showed me the road and helped to get me started on the path to Ph.D degree. He has been a tremendous mentor for me. His enthusiasm, encouragement and faith in me throughout have been extremely helpful. He was always available for my question and he was positive and gave generously of his time and vast knowledge. He always knew where to look for the answer to obstacles while leading me to the right source, theory and perspective. His advice on both research as well as on my career have been priceless.

I gratefully acknowledge Rajiv Gandhi National Fellowship Scheme, University Grant commission, New Delhi, for the award of Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) in the project entitled”Studies on goitrogenic/anti-thyroidal activity of certain Indian plant foods in animal model”(Sanction No. F. 14- 2 (Sc) /2010 (SA-III), dated 09/06/2011).

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all the faculty members of the Department of Physiology, University of Calcutta where the present investigation is carried out for their active help and support and providing me all the infrastructural and library facilities necessary for this endeavour.
I owe some special thanks to Dr. Haimanti Goswami and Mr. Arijit Chakraborty without whose cooperation and active participation completion of this research work would not have been possible. I express my appreciation to Dr. Neela De for constant support and active cooperation in every part of my research work. Thanks are also due for the help provided by Dr. Arijit Debnath, Mr. Udayan Bhattacharyya, Dr. Anirudhra Bhattacharyya, Dr. Shymosree Ghosh, Mr. Sabyasachi Sinha, Mr. Pallav Sensupta, Mr. Jagadis Mandal, Mrs. Nabomita Sen, Ms. Adipa Saha, Ms. Dakshayani Mahapatra of our laboratory.

Last but not least, I am very grateful for my mother Mrs. Shipra Mondal. Her understanding and her love encouraged me to work hard and to continue pursuing Ph.D degree. Her firm and kind-hearted personality has affected me to be steadfast and never bend to difficulty. She always lets me know that she is proud of me, which motivates me to work harder and do my best.
