LIST OF REFERENCES

45. Chopra Ritika, ‘Class X rule means only young women elected, only four of them’, The Indian Express, pp. 1-2, 19th January, 2016.

46. Chopra Ritika, ‘Thanks to Haryana law and SC order, these women and their village will fall off the map’, The Indian Express, pp. 1, 13th December, 2015.

103. Jain, S., ”Empowerment of women through NGOs—the SEWA Bank Experience”, in Kamta Prasad (eds.) (2000), NGO's and Socio Economic Development Opportunities, New Delhi, Deep and Deep Publication Pvt. Ltd, pp.112-119.

127. Kumar, S., "Study on SHG Federations - Challenges and Opportunities", Centre for Microfinance Research and BIRD, Lucknow, pp. 27-37, October, 2010.

152. Martin Rama, ‘Key lessons on road to sharing prosperity (Tacking Poverty in India, A study by World Bank, Part-XII (series concluded)’, The Indian Express, pp. 13, 17th August, 2016.

184. NABARD, ‘Status of microfinance in India’ Reports (From 2007-08 to 2015-16).

card: An integrated approach of ISM and ANP”, International Journal of

286. The Wilcoxon Sign Test in SPSS, Statistics Solutions webpage, Accessed:
2017.

287. Times News Network, “President to adopt 4 Gurgaon villages, his men go on field trip”, Times of India, June 29th, 2016.

292. Uperti H. C. and Nandini Uperti, Women and Problems of Gender Discrimination,

293. Using and Interpreting Cronbach’s Alpha, University of Virginia Library,

Dynamics Effectiveness of Self Help Groups of Rural Women in Haryana”,

296. Veluraj R., “SHGs an alternative approach to empower rural”, Journal of Rural Development”, International Journal of Information Technology and

298. Vidhya, R. “Women’s Upliftment in Tamil Nadu”, Southern Economist, vol. 48,
no. 21, pp. 28, 2010.

