ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the outset, I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. R.P. Srivastava, Head of the Department of Anthropology, University of Poona, who helped me in this gigantic task of writing my Ph.D Thesis. He had all along been the chief motive force and provided all possible academic guidance with his constructive suggestions and advice, removed all doubts and corrected all my faults at every step. His co-operation and support at all times during the course of present study, has left me with a sense of unforgettable thanks.

I shall also mention the names of Mr. Seth and Mr. O.N. Ratanpaul, G.M. and Mr. K.P. Singh, P.R.O., at Ajudhya Textile Mill, where the field work was performed for the present study. It was with their co-operation and help at each step, that the collection of vast amount of data were made possible. Dr (Mrs) Lakshmi Rajgopal helped me complete my literature survey at the KEM Hospital Library, Bombay. The encouragement and support I got from my husband Rajiv was one of the most important link in this chain. I must not forget the contribution of all the members of the Faculty of Anthropology, Pune and the persons, who gave me assistance in typing and binding of my Thesis.
