Acknowledgements

Praise be to the Almighty, the cherisher and the sustainer of the world, who bestowed on me his divine guidance.

In the first place I would like to record my immense gratitude and respect to my esteemed supervisor Dr. Arup Ratan Bandyopadhyay, Professor, Department of Anthropology, University of Calcutta and my Joint Supervisor Dr. Biswanath Sarkar, Anthropologist (Physical). Anthropological Survey of India for their benevolent guidance, meticulous supervision, invaluable suggestion, freedom of work in execution of my present endeavor was primarily responsible for this accomplishment. Working under their noble guidance, has been a great source of inspiration to me.

I sincerely express my ecstatic thanks to the Director, Anthropological Survey of India, Ministry of Culture, Government of India for providing me all the necessary infrastructure and technical facilities during my work.

I gratefully thank Dr. Rakesh Roy, Oncologist, Department of Medical Oncology, Dr. Malay Barman, Assistant Professor, Department of General Surgery and Dr. Gautam Das, Associate Professor, Department of General Surgery, National Medical College and Hospital, Kolkata for their help in collecting the precious samples and their co-operation in providing the data of the cancer patients during the course of the present study.

My thanks to Dr. Oindrila Raha, Dr. Jaya Sanyal and Pulakes Purkait for helping me in various analysis of the data.
I would like to extend my sincere thanks to all the members of DNA Laboratory, Anthropological Survey of India for their help and co-operation.

A special thanks to all breast cancer patients and controls that participated in the studies presented here, making scientific progress possible.

No words can put forth my warmest love and thanks to my grandmothers for their tender attachment, affection and blessings that boosted me up throughout the period of study.

Words sound hollow and phrases lose their meaning as I find myself unable to put forth my warmest love and regards to my best friend, Smeli Mukherjee, for her constant encouragement, inspiration and unerring patience, which helped me the most during crisis ridden phase of this task. She has always believed that this thesis would eventuate and her support and love made it all so easier.

All the words in the lexicon will be meaningless, if I fail to divulge my extreme sense of regards to my adorable parents for their sacrifice, prayers and blessings. Wish to acquiesce the gratefulness beyond accountability to my adorable parents whose affection and morale boosting during every phase of my life, indeed actuated me to make this chimera expectancy true. Whatever I am today, I entirely owe it to them.
