TABLE OF CONTENTS

SECTION A: TO FOUCAULT

1. Introduction: Towards Tri-hierarchization .......................................................... 2

2. The Epistemological Break
   A Study in the Possibility of Foucault ......................................................... 16

3. The Formation of the Episteme
   A Study in Foucault's Intellectual Horizon .................................................... 78

SECTION B: IN FOUCAULT

4. Power and Knowledge: the Substratum
   A Study of the First Three Texts by Foucault ............................................... 133

5. Representation and Tripartition: the Ontology
   A Study of Foucault's Order of Things ........................................................... 193

6. Archaeology: the Method
   A Study of Foucault's Archaeology of Knowledge ......................................... 259

SECTION C: FROM FOUCAULT

7. Genealogy, Discourse and Hierarchies
   Power in the Domain of Mentality ................................................................. 298

8. Social Apparatuses and Hierarchies
   Power in the Domain of Materiality ................................................................... 348

9. Sexuality and Hierarchies
   Power in the Domain of Physicality ................................................................... 400

SECTION D: BEYOND FOUCAULT

10. Tri-hierarchization in Cultural Analysis
    A Study in Contemporary Forms of Criticism .................................................. 459

11. Of Similarities and Differences
    A Study in Other Forms of the Same Tripartition ............................................. 485

12. Conclusion: Towards a Dehierarchist Poetics ..................................................... 506

BIBLIOGRAPHY

513