ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I thank Almighty God, Lord Jesus Christ my Saviour for His abundant Grace to carry out this research report.

It would not have been possible to write this doctoral thesis without the help and support of the kind people around me, to only some of whom it is possible to give particular mention here.

I owe great debt of gratitude to my guide Dr. P. Murali Krishna, Professor of management, S.K. University. In spite of his busy schedule, he was never disinclined to spare his time, when ever I approached for guidance. He has been a source of constant encouragement through out my research work.

My sincere thanks to Prof. Krishna Reddy, Head of the department, S.K.Institute of Management, Prof. Krishna Naik, Chairman BOS, Prof. RamPrasadRao, Prof. Hampanna, Prof MutyalaNaidu Prof. Venugopal Rao, Prof. B. Anitha, Prof. Megharaj, Dr.Prabhakar, Dr. Krishnudu and the other faculty members, Librarian and non teaching staff of SKIM for their encouragement during my research work.

My special regards to Dr. Premchand Babu for thoughtful of my mind and encouraged me to pursue the research with the right approach.

I thank Dr. V. Sailaja who gave me valuable suggestions and procedure in analyzing data and to shape the raw material into a thesis. My heart will never forget the help by my student Ms. Swetha in computerizing my thesis.

I am thankful to all the employees of Wipro and Infosys for their co-operation in giving the data required for my research work.

I deeply indebted to my husband Mr. Sundar Raj S S, who backed me up in all my endeavors and stood by my side during field work and remained a fountain of inspiration. I am thankful to my kids S. Susan Amiable & Sam S Noble who made my work lighter with their playful activities.

I express my profound gratitude towards my parents Ms. M.C. Manoharamma, and Late G. Stanley Immanuel, Brother G. Daniel and my sisters who encouraged me continuously. I am thankful to my In-laws for their prayer support.

It is my immense pleasure to thank all the people who co-operated with me in accomplishing this research work.
