Praise is to God and my parents Sri Indrajeet Singh and Smt. Damayanti Devi the most exalted whose mercy and blessing have enabled me to complete this study. I owe my deepest gratitude to those who have helped me through the process of completing this thesis. It is a pleasure to thank those who made this thesis possible.

It is my proud privilege and honor to express my feelings of deep gratitude towards Dr. Udayan Mishra, Principal Shri Baldev P.G. College, Baragaon, Varanasi (U.P.) for all inspiration and incredible support. His profound knowledge, literacy critique and in exhaustive patience were a source of immense encouragement throughout the present investigation.

The research scholar conveys his sincere thanks to Prof. Girishwar Mishra, Department of Psychology, Delhi University, Delhi, not only for his help in correcting the manuscripts but also for extending suggestions in improving my work.

The research scholar wishes to acknowledge his gratitude to Dr. Sohan Lal Yadav, Principal, Harishchandra P.G. College, Varanasi (U.P.) for his ever encouraging words ‘to go ahead’ with the task and finish the race with good position.
In undertaking this study, I have received cooperation from a number of person and various schools of eastern Uttar Pradesh. It is not possible to acknowledge all of them by name, so I would like to thanks the Principals and the teachers for their kind cooperation during the data collection and qualitative interview for the present study.

To my beloved wife, Smt. Shobha Singh for her unflagging support, patience, tolerance and encouragement that keep me going and remain determine to go through this study until the completion.

Last, but not the least, I express my deep sense of gratitude to my uncle Dr. S. N. Singh, Mr. Baleshwar Singh my elder brother advocate Ashwini Kumar Singh, bhabhi Smt. Lalpari Singh and my lovely Rani, Om, and Rishabh who did not get due attention and affection from the scholar being busy with the study.

Awadhesh Kumar Singh