ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

‘Krunatyam Biswam Aryam’ this famous line of ‘Veda’ always puts a remarkable impression in everybody’s life. ‘Veda’ proposes two paths to attain success. One of the paths is desire and the other is knowledge which is enlightenment that drives us to success. This theme of ‘Veda’ has become true in my life only because of a prominent person who is none other than ‘My Guru’ than Prof. (Dr.) A.K. Das Mohapatra of the Department of Business Administration, Sambalpur University under whose able guidance and supervision, I could hear the unheard sound which was hidden within me and finally could complete the work. His personal care, interest, encouragement and valuable counselling have in every steps have contributed to the successful and timely completion of this research work.

I am also thankful to the Faculty and Staff of the Department of Business Administration, Sambalpur University for their support to pursue my research work.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to the whole management of Rourkela Steel Plant (RSP) and especially Mr. Padmanava Mishra, Sr. Manager (ERP), for their support and encouragement with permission to consult and collect data from the organization.

I am also highly indebted to Dr. Tushar Kanta Gaya, Reader in Education, College of Teacher Education, Rourkela, Odisha for his unconditional help and support in using the statistical package during the course of data analysis.

I also wish to express my heartfelt appreciation and acknowledgement to Dr. Chandra Kanti Chakraborti, Professor, Kanak Manjari Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Rourkela, Odisha for providing his valuable suggestions, extending moral support and encouragement during the entire work. Moreover, many of my colleagues of Kanak Manjari Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Rourkela, Odisha have helped me a lot to prepare this thesis whom I am equally thankful.

I take the opportunity to thank all the authors and publishers whose articles, books etc, I have referred to for this study. I am thankful to all others who have directly or indirectly extending their helping hands for the work.

Last but not the least, I am thankful to my Ganesha and my parents without whose blessings, unconditional support, help and co-operation, this work could not have come to light.
