ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All the praises and thanks to Allah, the Almighty Creator and Sustainer of the world, I thanks Almighty Allah for granting me health, strength and wisdom to complete this research.

It is with utmost pleasure that I include the names of those who have, in some possible way, contributed to the production of this work, supported me, and favoured me during the arduous journey of my research.

I am delighted to take this opportunity of expressing deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor, Prof Shamim Ahmad, Department of Agricultural Economics & Business Management, A.M.U., Aligarh, who has directed me, freed me to explore, and listened to the problems that i have faced, suggested me the ways to find solutions, and best of all, praised me whenever it was necessary. His supportive, positive and easy approach made all things comfortable for me. His vast intellect, profound learning, his multidisciplinary vision, his patient and dedicated supervision, keen interest and above all his devotion helped me in the completion of this work. I have been intensely benefited from his concrete and objective criticism, wholehearted cooperation and helpful suggestions during the course of this thesis. The present thesis is a function of his unflinching guidance and this work would not have seen the dawn without his cooperation and help. I thank him from the deepest core of my heart.

The painstaking part of this research work has been greatly eased and facilitated by the help and cooperation of my colleagues Mohammed Jamshed and Waseem Khan. Special thanks are due to him for their generous help in every part of my thesis.
