ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my teacher Dr. N.K. Behura, Professor, Department of Anthropology, Utkal University, Vanivihar, Bhubaneswar, under whose supervision the present research has been completed. His constant encouragement, keen personal interest, noble guidance and painstaking efforts have gone a long way in shaping the present study.

I am extremely grateful to my teacher Dr. R.N. Srivastava, Professor and Head of the Department of Sociology, Utkal University for his wise suggestions and best possible help at all phases of this research work.

I extend my heart-felt gratitude to Mr. K.C. Mohapatra, General Secretary, OSSTA (Orissa Secondary School Teachers' Association) and also to the General Secretary, OGSSTA (Orissa Government School Teachers' and Inspecting Officers' Association) for their valuable suggestions.

I feel indebted to Dr. Umakanta Mohapatra, Ex-Principal, Ravenshaw College, Cuttack, for permitting me to use the Kanika Library.

I am grateful to my revered teacher Mr. P.K. Misra, Assistant Headmaster of Railway Settlement High School, Cuttack for his valuable suggestions and help.

I feel highly indebted to my teacher informants of Cuttack town.

I had the good fortune in receiving wise suggestions, help and valuable guidance from my father Prof. (Dr.) N.K. Mohapatra, Ex-Chairman, Council of Higher secondary Education, Orissa.

I feel indebted to "M/S. ORICOM COMPUTER LAB", Cuttack for keying, editing and printing the manuscripts of this thesis.

In the end, I would fail in my duty if I do not acknowledge my heart-felt gratitude to my husband Er. D.G. Moharan, from whom I have taken continuous encouragement, keen interest and never ending co-operation in preparing this research report.
