Acknowledgments

Ever since childhood the researcher had dreamed about becoming someone like her father, (Late) Shri Anup Kumar Agrawal. To him in-depth knowledge and deep study about any subject was not any kind of scientific study, but it was about the joy of exploring something huge out of something as ordinary as a simple word. He inspired her to be a researcher and to create something that one can leave behind in this world. Not everyone can see the extraordinary in the ordinary; it needs an insightful sight like him to be one. Also, she expresses her deep gratitude to her father–in-law, (Late) Shri Jayant Bendre, who constantly motivated and initiated her research process. Although the expression of her gratefulness in words to every single one who helped is not sufficient, she would still shower ample gratitude to these people as the researcher on her own could not bring about the entire progression of the work.

Firstly, the researcher is immensely grateful to Bhagwan Shri Krishn who bestowed health and will power to take on the doctoral program and finally complete the thesis. The researcher commits to herself to obtain, purify, and transmit more knowledge to the society in return for what he has gifted her.

Sincere thanks go to Prof. Aditya Shastri, Hon’ble Vice Chancellor, Banasthali University for his kind acceptance of the application overall and enabling her to enroll into the doctoral program. The researcher expresses her gratitude towards the Pro-Vice Chancellor of Banasthali University, Prof. Ina Shastri and the Vice- President of Banasthali University, Prof. Siddharth Shastri. Special and Sincere thanks go to Dr. Dharm Kishore, Officiating Secretary, and my godfather without whose support and blessings I would never have been able to make my dreams come real.
The researcher would like to thank Prof. Harsh Purohit Sir, her thesis supervisor, Dean-WISDOM at Banasthali University, Rajasthan for his meticulous supervision, valuable suggestions, prompt communication, keen observation, and immense help throughout the study. For sure, without his support, the research would not have been even imagined. Falling short of words to say thanks to you, Harsh sir. I will continue working in this direction with your valuable support and guidance.

The researcher expresses her gratitude to Mr. Hiralal Mittal, Addl. Registrar, Banasthali University, for his kind support in all administrative works. The researcher did not face any instance wherein administrative hassle came on the way.

A special thanks to Dr. Praveen Babel sir and the Staff Members of the Library who have always been of great help to provide books and journals for the research. The researcher also extends her gratitude to the Clerical Staff of the department who always extended their support during her presence in the department.

The researcher takes this prospect to convey gratefulness to all her friends and family who guided and helped her on all the stages of research process and especially statistical aspects. Special thanks goes to my dear friend Dr. Veermati Singh who constantly guided and motivated me and supported me.

The researcher wishes to express her heartfelt gratitude to Smt. Manju Agrawal, the researcher’s mother, for showering unconditional love, care, and support all through life without which this thesis would not have been existent. This doctoral thesis, is a supple gift to her.

And last but not the least; researcher’s gratitude is just incomplete without thanking (Late) Smt. Jyoti Bendre, her mother-in-law, who has been her pillar of emotional vigour and persuasive motivation. The researcher has no words of thanks to say to her life partner, Mr. Jatin Bendre, whose constant support and involvement enabled the researcher to devote her time and resources towards the thesis. And special thanks to my lovely son, Janmejay Bendre, who always co-operated and supported me during my research hours. Besides, researcher's brothers, Mr.Nitin Kumar and Mr.Bharat Bendre along with their lovely wives motivated her to work seriously and swiftly. All of you deserve life-size thanks, Thank you, all!!!
