Acknowledgement

In the name of Allah, the most beneficent and merciful, I am here to acknowledge the efforts of the people directly or indirectly involved in the compilation of this Thesis. Writing a doctoral thesis may appear like a single man’s job, but in reality its teamwork. This thesis is also an outcome of team work where different teams were playing different roles. I start with acknowledging the guiding and mentoring team, I would extend my gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Asif Ali Syed, who not only guided me as a teacher, but also supported me as a friend, took care of me as a parent. I am indebted to the compassion he has shown to me as a Supervisor.

I also would like to extend my thanks to the Dean and Chairman, of the Department of Business Administration Prof. Parvaiz Talib, and my other respected teachers in the department for continued inspiration and guidance for my work. A special thanks is due for Dr. Tariq Aziz and Dr. Ahmad Faraz Khan who were my batch mate and senior respectively during my MBA days.

This Thesis wouldn’t have been possible without the support of my employer i.e. Geaddu College of Business Studies, Royal University of Bhutan headed by a visionary Vice-Chancellor Dasho Nidup Dorji, Director General of Research and External Relations Dr. Phanchung, Dean Academic Affairs, Mr. Kinley Wangchuk and other officials. A special thanks to Mr. Lhato Jamba, former Director General, Gaeddu College of Business Studies for his unconditional support for this research venture and processing of necessary leaves. My highly grateful to Mrs. Ugyen Lham, Research Officer, Bhutan Chamber of Commerce and Industry; Mrs. Bimla Rai, CEO, Niche Financial Services and my students Mr. Dorji Wangchuk, Ms. Yangchen Lhamo, Ms. Tsencho Dema, Ms. Ugyen Lhamo, Ms. Tsheten Lhamo, Mr. Dorji Tshering, Ms. Thering Dema and other students who helped me in collecting data from the two countries. Special remarks for the present President of Gaeddu College of Business Studies, Dr. Sonam Choiden, who is a source of inspiration and hard work.

My biggest source of strength and the one who made highest level of sacrifice in the course of this research, My mother Mrs. Sabiha Bano and My Sister Ms. Mariyam
Khan, who were always there to support me emotionally and took extra pain in making this thesis a reality.

I would like to Thank Mr. Rajnish Ratna for helping me in Data Analysis. I am grateful to Prof. K. M. Antony and Mr. M. Shoeb Sultan for proof reading and formatting the chapters. I would like to acknowledge the special efforts put in by Mr. Mohd. Shamshad, Mr. Ashraf Ali, Dr. Sarim Abbas, Mr. Rinchen Dorji, Ms. Saira Khatoon, Mr. Mohd Sarim in the course of my research. I would like to thank other colleagues for helping me in consolidating the data and drafting the report as it is today. Last but not the least, my humble gratitude to the non-teaching staff of Department of Business Administration, Faculty of Management Studies and Research and Gaeddu College of Business Studies for extending the administrative support.

In a small space like this it wouldn’t be possible to mention all the names, my gratitude and gratefulness remains same for all others who have contributed my this study directly and indirectly.
