ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This Thesis work entitled "GANDHIAN CONSTRUCTIVE PROGRAMME FOR A NON-VIOLENT SOCIETY: THE ROLE OF ASHRAMS IN ANDHRA PRADESH" is the outcome of the research carried out by me as a Research Student for the Degree of Vidya Vachaspathi (Doctor of Philosophy), Department of Gandhian Philosophy, Gujarat Vidyapith, Ahmedabad under the supervision and guidance of Dr. DILIP SHAH, Senior Professor & HOD (Retired) Mahatma Gandhi Department of Rural Studies, Veer Narmad South Gujarat University, Surat. He has inspired and guided me throughout my research work and his scholarly guidance was an immense source of strength for my successful completion of this Thesis. So, I express my sincere thanks and deepest gratitude to Dr. DILIP SHAH.

I am also indebted to Living Gandhian Legend Sri G.Lavanam, Sri G.V.V.S.D. Prasad General Secretary of A.P. Sarvodaya Mandali, Hyderabad, Dr. D.Venkateswara Rao, Professor and Director of Gandhian Studies Centre, Sri Y.N.College, Narsapur, Sri B. Raja Rao, History Lecturer of Government Degree College, Sithanagaram, Organisers of Pinakini Satyagrahashram-Pallepadu, Organisers of Sri Sarada Nikethan-Guntur, Organisers of Kasturba Gandhi National Memorial Trust(Gowtami Satyagrahashram), Sithanagaram, Organisers of Vinayashram-Kavur for their enthusiastic assistance and valuable help extended for the completion of my Thesis.

I am also thankful to Sri M. Krishna Prasad for his enormous service in collecting the necessary information for the completion of this Thesis.

Finally, I am thankful to my friends who helped me in collection of the data and completion of this Thesis.

(P.S. PRAJAPRAJU)

iv