Acknowledgement

The investigator praise and thank ‘Lord Almighty’ for his abundant grace, blessings and unconditioned love bestowed on her throughout the study.

Words fail to express the investigators’ profound indebtedness to her supervising teacher Dr. Rajeev Kumar. N. School of Behavioural Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University for his thought provoking guidance, infinite patience, constant encouragement and valuable suggestions throughout the study and the author offers him deepest regards and sincere gratitude.

The investigator wholeheartedly express her sincere gratitude to Dr. M.S Razeena Padman, Director, School of Behavioural Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University for all the administrative and academic support and encouragement extended for the accomplishment of this study.

The investigator expresses her heartfelt gratitude to Dr. John Baby and Dr. H. Sam Sananda Raj for the different tools used in the study and timely guidance of Dr. Sunanda in statistical analysis. The investigator acknowledges with gratitude the valuable prayers and help rendered by Holy Family Congregation especially Navajyothi Provincial council. The director and management of jubilee mission hospital deserve special thanks for their wholehearted cooperation.

The investigator appreciate Dr. Johnson Chittilapilly, Mrs. Betsy, Ms. Ancy Thomas for translating and editing the manuscript. The Librarians and Mr. Murali of Mahatma Gandhi University Library, College of Nursing Library, Central Library, the Librarian and Office Staff of the School of Behavioural Sciences for providing necessary facilities for literature collection and Educare Computers for word processing and photocopying of the thesis in time. Special thanks are also due to Sr. Sara Jane, Sr. Udaya, Community members, Colleagues, Religious friends, family members for their support throughout this endeavor.

Thressia .P.A.