WORKS CITED

Primary Sources :

Writings of Kamala Markandaya

Writings of Anita Desai

Writings of Bharati Mukherjee

Secondary Sources:

A. Books:

Bhabha, Homi K. The Location of Culture. London: Routledge, 1994.

"The Nowhere Man" : A Comparative study of Anita Desai's
Baumgartner's Bombay and Kamala Markandaya's The Nowhere

"Splintered self: An Approach to Bharati Mukherjee's Wife",
Commonwealth writing: A study in Expatriate Experience. Ed.
1994.

Iyengar, K.R. Srinivsa. Indian writing in English. Bombay: Asia Pub House,

Jain, Jasbir. Writers of Indian Diaspora: Theory and Practice. Jaipur:

Jain, Naresh K. "Women in Indo - Anglian Fiction: Tradition and

Jameson Fredric. Post-Modernism on the Cultural Logic of Late

Jha, Rekha. The Novels of Kamala Markandaya, Ruth Prawar Jhabvala:
A Study in East - West Encounter. New Delhi: Prestige Books, 1990.

Johnson, Frank. Alienation: Over view and Introduction Concept, Term

Joseph, Margaret P. The Novels of Kamala Markandaya. New Delhi: Arnold
Heinemann, 1980.
Kallinikova Ellena J. “The Hindu Woman form London : Kamala Markandaya”.

Kallinikova, Ellena J. Indian English Literature : A Survey Gnaziabad :

Kirpal, Viney. The Third World Novel of Expatriation. A study of Emigre
Fiction by Indina, West African and Carribbean Writers. New Delhi:
Sterling, 1989.

_________. The Postmodern Indian English Novel : Interrogating The

Kukreti, Sumitra “Love Hate relationship of expartiates in Anita Desai’s
Ed. Bhatnagar & Rajeshwar M. New Delhi : Atlantic Publishers and

Kumar, Nagendra. The Fiction of Bharati Mukherjee : A Cultural

Lionell Trilling, Sincerity and Authenticity. London : Oxford University press,

B. Journals / Magazines

Bhabha, Homi K. “Signs Taken for wonders ; Questions of Ambivalence and Authority under a Tree outside Delhi, Critical Inquiry. 1985.

C. Interview

Krishna Kumar, N.P. Interview with Bharati Mukherjee. “India is in Touch with us.” Indian Express. 20 Sep, 1992.
