ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work owes immensely to Dr. A.M. MOORTHY, Professor and Head, Department of Physical Education and Health Sciences, Alagappa University, Karaikudi, a guide par excellence and a remarkable teacher. Due to his guidance, I could make constant progress and but for his encouragement, the work would not have made much headway. So words are poor tools to express my indebtedness to him.

For the many valuable discussion of both the conceptual and formal aspects of this study, I am most grateful to my beloved teachers. Dr. R. THIRUMALAI SWAMY, Dr. K. POWN RADHA and Mr. S. JAIHIND JOTHIKRAN, Department of Physical Education and Health Sciences, Alagappa University, Karaikudi.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. SIVARAMAKRISHNAN and Dr. (Mrs) GITA MATHEW, College of Physical Education, Alagappa University, Karaikudi for their valuable suggestions from time to time throughout the study. I also thank Mr. R. KALIDASAN, Ph.D. Scholar, Alagappa University College of Physical Education for his suggestions and assistance in writing the thesis.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. A.S. NAGESWARAN, H.H. The Raja’s College, Pudukkottai for his constructive suggestions and timely help.

I am very much greatful to Dr. Latha Satish, (Research Scientist) and Dr. Latha Nityanand, (Research in-charge), Krishnamacharya Yogamandiram, Chennai for their inspiring guidance and advice.

My special acknowledgement goes to the Principals and Physical Education Faculty of Queen Mary’s College, Stella Maris College, and Y.M.C.A. College of Physical Education, Chennai for their assistance and encouragement.

I wish to thank Dr. Swaminathan and Dr. Karunanidhi, Department of Psychology, University of Madras, for their assistance and whole-hearted support.
