ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am at loss of words to express my deep sense of gratitude to the Almighty God ‘Akal Purakh’ with whose grace the present study has been completed. I consider it a good fortune to work under the learned and scholarly supervision of Dr. Fulbag Singh, Professor, Department of Commerce and Business Management, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar. I express my sincere gratitude to my esteemed supervisor for his mature guidance, consistent encouragement, continuous motivation, dedicated commitment and helpful attitude during the course of the present work. He has devoted his precious time in solving my problems. I thank him from the core of my heart for examining each and every statement thoroughly despite awfully busy in his own work.

I am grateful to Dr. A. S. Sidhu and Dr. B. S. Hundal, former Heads and Dr. Lakhwinder Singh, present Head, Department of Commerce and Business Management, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for providing me the requisite facilities for the completion of this study. I also place on record my gratitude to Dr. A.S. Sethi, Professor of Quantitative Economics, Punjab School of Economics, GNDU, Amritsar and Dr. Balwinder Singh, Reader, Department of Commerce and Business Management, GNDU, Amritsar for helping me during the course of my study.

I am grateful to S. Harjit Singh Sidhu, former Executive Director, Ludhiana Stock Exchange (Presently Executive Director, Delhi Stock Exchange) who helped me in collecting offer documents of the sampled companies not only from Ludhiana Stock Exchange but also from Bombay Stock Exchange and Delhi Stock Exchange. He allowed me to use the Capital-line database and took every pain in providing me the required data for completing this research work. All this has become possible due to help and co-operation of Mr. Sartaj Bedi and Rajan Bedi, Stock Brokers, Ludhiana Stock Exchange who not only introduced me to S. Harjit Singh Sidhu but also provided my all administrative facilities to carry out the research in their office in Ludhiana Stock Exchange. I am thankful to them for their support and assistance.

I am extremely thankful to Mr. Dinanath S. Sarmalkar, Deputy Manager, Filing Department, Bombay Stock Exchange and Mr. N.K. Pandya, Asst. General Manager, Department of Investors Services, Bombay Stock Exchange who provided me valuable data relating to sampled companies and investors grievances. I have been in a position to complete this research due to their help and kindness.
I am also thankful to S. Jagat Singh Plahi, Chairman, Managing Committee, Guru Nanak College, Sukhchainana Sahib, Phagwara for granting me permission to do Ph. D. on part time basis from Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar.

During the course of this study, I visited a number of institutions and libraries such as National Council of Applied Economic Research, New Delhi; Indian Council for Social Sciences Research, New Delhi; Ratan Tata Library at Delhi University; Library of Jawaharlal Lal Nehru University, New Delhi; main library of Punjab Agricultural University, Ludhiana; Libraries of Bombay, Delhi and Ludhiana Stock Exchanges and main library of Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar. I gratefully acknowledge the liberal access to the research material, journals and books allowed by the librarians and staff members of these institutions.

From the core of my heart, I would like to thank my friends Dr. Kulwant Singh, Principal, Guru Nanak Prem Karamsar College, Nadala; Dr. Rattan Singh, Head of English Department, Ramgharia College, Phagwara; Mr. Paramjit Singh, Head of Computer Science Department, Guru Nanak College, Sukhchainana Sahib, Phagwara; Mr. Tirath Basra, Lecturer, Government College, Kapurthala and Mr. S.C. Bhatia, Lecturer, Guru Nanak College, Sukhchainana Sahib, Phagwara for their necessary help and inspiration during the course of this research.

I also express my sincere thanks to Mrs. Fulbag Singh for her hospitality and supportive attitude during the course of the study. I am thankful to Mr. Didar Singh and his family members for their help and support during the completion of this thesis. I also wish to thank to S. Baljit Singh, Ms Davinder Kaur and Ms Priyansha (Research Fellows Department of Commerce and Business Management, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar) for their help during the research work. I wish to thank Mr. Jatin Mehta of Pioneer Computers, GNDU Shopping Complex, Amritsar for his co-operation and helpful attitude while compiling and printing this thesis.

Last but not the least, I shall remain highly indebted to my respected father for his blessings, to my wife Mrs. Balwinder Kaur for her co-operative and supportive attitude and my sons, Manpreet and Harsimran for their support and patience during the course of study.
