Acknowledgement

It is with great pleasure that I express my gratitude to those who made this study possible. First of all I would like to express my thanks to His Grace Dr. Thomas Mar Koorilose, Metropolitan Archbishop of Tiruvalla who encouraged me to pursue doctoral studies and made all the arrangements for my stay in SEERI. My gratitude goes to Missionswissenschaftliches Institut Missio e.V. for granting the necessary scholarship for my stay and study at SEERI. I place on record my deep sense of gratitude to Rev. Dr. Jacob Thekeparampil, Director of SEERI, the guide and supervisor of this work. I am very much obliged to Prof Andrea B. Schmidt of Université catholique de Louvain, Louvain-la-Neuve, Belgium, for allowing me use the library there and for her valuable guidance in the work of the thesis. I am also grateful to Prof Martin Tamcke of Georg-August-Universität, Göttingen, Germany, for granting a scholarship to research part of my thesis there. I am very much indebted to Fr. Senan William Furlong OSB for helping me clarify and express my ideas in English and for spending his valuable time reading and correcting the whole thesis. I am thankful to Prof Herman G.B. Teule who, during his stay in SEERI, found time to read parts of the thesis and make helpful suggestions. I am also grateful Prof Sebastian Brock who found time to check the translation of the mimre and make valuable suggestions. I am grateful to Rev. Dr. Thomas Koonammakkal (Dean of Studies), Rev. Dr. Johns A. Konat, Rev. Dr. Baby Varghese and all the other professors of SEERI. I am very much indebted to SEERI, to the staff, especially Mr. K.V. Thomas and Mrs. Kochumol, and to the students, for all their help and support.
