Acknowledgements

This thesis would have never been possible without the blessings of God, the Almighty for having given me forte to accomplish this onerous work despite my shortcomings. At this moment of accomplishment, I must offer my profoundest acknowledgements to God, the Almighty.

It is difficult to overstate my gratefulness to my supervisor and guide Dr. R. Latha Devi for having accepted me as her research scholar and for having given me the fullest freedom to explore on my own. Only with her inspiration, encouragement and painstaking efforts to explain things in a better light, I am able to complete this thesis in time. At this juncture, I record my deepest gratitude to my guide and I pray the almighty to give her good health to produce umpteen numbers of research scholars in the future too.

I have no words to thank Prof. M. Sebastian, Dr. S. Arul Krishnamoorthy, Dr. D. Joseph Chandra and Asst. Prof. J. Thampi Jayasingh for going through my thesis and offering valuable suggestions.

I thank Rev. Dr. E. John Kulandai, Correspondent, Dr. S. Maria John, Principal, Annai Velankanni College from the depth of my heart for having provided me with conducive atmosphere to complete this arduous work. I remain in gratitude to all my dear colleagues for their courteous assistance at all times.
I owe my gratitude to the librarians of SCILET, Madurai, Kerala University, Thiruvananthapuram, Dhvanyaloka Library, Mysoor, and M.S. University Library, Tirunelveli.

I am greatly indebted to my husband Mr. R. Rojore Rajesh and my loving son R. J. Ralin Tonie and my lovely angel R. Miria Tephi for their tolerance, constant support, unconditional love which enabled me to complete this research work successfully. I couldn’t find words to explain my utmost gratitude to them for having made my research stint a pleasurable learning experience. I also reminiscence the blessings of my loving parents, in-laws, brothers and sisters, without them I would not have attained this position in my life. I owe my heartfelt thanks to my younger sister Dr. J. Jesu Vedha Nayahi, Assistant Professor, Anna University Regional Campus, Tirunelveli for mentoring and motivating me throughout this research.

I thank Mrs. Jasmine for typing the thesis elegantly and promptly, bringing out the thesis in the present form.

Finally, I thank all who helped, supported and encouraged me to complete this research work in a successful manner.
