ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, I thank the GOD for showering his choicest blessings on me throughout my research work.

I express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. D. Gopi, Professor of Chemistry and Additional Coordinator, Centre for Nanoscience and Nanotechnology, Periyar University, for his excellent guidance and great patience throughout the work. His great enthusiasm and extended knowledge in science have helped me a lot in my research endeavor. His diligence and exactitude in work have impressed me, and benefited me not only throughout the period of this thesis, but will also continue to do so in the future. Discussions with him always inspired me and helped me to improve the quality of my work. Also, I thank him for his encouragement throughout the years, which has given me courage to explore the scientific world.

With deep regards and profound respect, I express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to Dr. L. Kavitha, Associate Professor of Physics, School of Basic and Applied Sciences, Central University of Tamilnadu, Thiruvarur for her inspiring guidance, constructive criticism and valuable suggestion throughout my research work. It would have not been possible for me to bring out this thesis without her help and constant encouragement.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. V. Raj, Professor and Head, Department of Chemistry, Periyar University, Salem for his support.
Also, I take this opportunity to sincerely acknowledge University Grants Commission (UGC) for the financial assistance which buttressed me to perform my work comfortably. I am bound to thank the members of teaching, non-teaching staff and other research scholars of the Department of Chemistry, Periyar University for being so supportive and helpful in every possible way throughout the research work.

I express my heart felt thanks to my dear seniors and colleagues for helping me in completing the thesis successfully by indulging their valuable time, efforts, and suggestions.

Finally, I wish to thank my beloved parents, sister and all my family members for their constant support and encouragement to reach this joyful moment.
