

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It's custom any to preface a work with a formal acknowledgement of helps received from various quarters during preparation of this Ph. D. Thesis. The people, I am going to name here have really been so helpful to me that I am at a loss to know how to thank them sufficiently. The acknowledgment, therefore, is not a mere academic formality but a sincere expression of my heart-felt gratitude towards those people.

I express my hearty gratitude and indebtedness to my guide Dr. Rekha Gupta, Professor in Sociology for her proper guidance, encouragement and sincere cooperation without which this work would not have been a reality.

My deepest gratitude to Hon'ble VC, AISECT University, Prof. A. K. Gwal for his cooperation and suggestions during my whole study. I express my deep sense of gratitude to Shri Mukesh Kumar, CEO, CRISP, Dr. Shrikant Bansal COO, CRISP, Dr. Ranjan Kumar, AGM, CRISP, Mr. Rajesh Maheshwari AGM, CRISP, and all my colleagues for their support and encouragement. Finally, I extend my thanks to all the Research Staff of the university, especially, Dr. Sangeeta Jauhari, Dr. Deepti Maheswari, Ms. Ambika Naidu and Mr. Rajesh Gangrade for their support from time to time.

(Mathew John)