INTRODUCTION

1.1 The Crafts
1.1.1 Definitions of Handicrafts
1.1.2 Basic Premise of Material Culture
1.1.3 The Aesthetics of Creation
1.1.4 Expression of Arts and Aesthetics

1.2 Tangible and Intangible Heritage Represented By the Crafts
1.2.1 Understanding the Paradigm Shift

1.3 Historical Perspective
1.3.1 Historical Perspective on Metals in Human Enterprise
1.3.2 The Traditions of Recycling in Ancient Texts
1.3.3 The Shilpasastras and Other Early Literary Sources on Metal Crafts
1.3.4 The South Indian Bronzes

1.4 Traditional Production Methods
1.4.1 The Tradition of Working in Pure Copper
1.4.2 Rural Handicraft
1.4.3 Traditional Markets and Rural Industry
1.4.4 Emergence of the Crafts as a Rural Industry

1.5 Gender Equations in the Crafts
1.5.1 Gender Dynamics in the Creation of Crafts

1.6 Swadeshi Movement Versus Industrialization
1.6.1 Technological Advancements and the Crafts
1.6.2 Advance of Technology and Emergence of the Artisan Elite
1.7 Social Constructs and the Decline of Cultural Entities

1.7.1 Industrialization, Capitalism and the Decline of the Crafts
1.7.2 Languishing and Dwindling Crafts Presence

1.8 Crafts and Social Identity

1.8.1 Craft, Identity, and Status of the Craft Persons
1.8.2 The Craft and the Craftsman Down the ages
1.8.3 Maintenance of Crafts Oriented Institutions
1.8.4 Artisans and Objects de Art
1.8.5 The Artisan Persona – Its Development and Maturity

1.9 Concepts of Ethnic Identity and the Comoditization of Culture

1.9.1 Poverty and the Cycle of Debt, Dependence and Dissociation

1.10 Re-Emergence of the Crafts Potential under the Tourism Umbrella

1.11 Small Enterprises and Poverty Alleviation

1.12 Cultural Policies and Regeneration of Crafts Products

1.12.1 Key Challenges, Interventions and Government Schemes
1.12.2 Future Prospects of the Crafts as Revenue

1.13 Attempts to Resurrect the Crafts

---

2. HAND-BEATEN METALCRAFT: SITE, HISTORY AND CURRENT STATUS

2.1 India

2.2. The Punjab State

2.2.1 Historical, Ecological, War Memorials and Independence Struggle Landmarks
2.2.2 Regions of Punjab

2.3 Amritsar: Significance and History
   2.3.1 Industries in Amritsar
   2.3.2 Utensils Industry
   2.3.3 Metal Ware and Metalwork

2.4 Area Under Study
   2.4.1 Metalworker Community
   2.4.2 Non-Ferrous Metal Industry (utensils) at Jandiala Guru

3. RESEARCH METHODS 103-118
   3.1 Research Design
   3.2 Foundations of Interest in the Research and Problem Identification
   3.3 Universe and Unit of Study
   3.4 Sampling the Study Base
   3.5 Pilot Study
   3.6 Rapport Establishment
   3.7 Objectives of the study
   3.8 Data Generation
   3.9 Ethical Consideration
   3.10 Problems Encountered in the Field
   3.11 Analysis of Data

4. ANALYSIS AND DISCUSSION 119-202
   4.1 Demographic Profiles of the Thathera of Jandiala Guru
      4.1.1 Caste Affiliations of the Thathera
      4.1.2 Educational Status
      4.1.3 Marital Responsibilities
4.1.4 Place of Origin and Place of Work

4.1.5 Household Size

4.1.6 Number of dependents

4.1.7 Initiation of Work

4.1.8 Present Age at Work

4.1.9 Per Day Earnings of the Thathera

4.1.10 Diversification into Other Occupations

4.2 Demographic Profile of the Kasera Respondents

4.2.1 Caste Distribution

4.2.2 Educational Status of the Kasera Respondents

4.2.3 Present Age at Work

4.2.4 Number of Dependents in a Family

4.2.5 Average Income of the Kasera

4.2.6 Diversification of the Kasera into Other Occupations

4.2.7 Place of Origin

4.3 Process and Steps in making Final Product From Raw Material

4.3.1 Melting of Raw Material (from different sources) in the Furnaces and Making of Ingots

4.3.2 Making Flat Discs From These Ingots With the Help of Rolling Machines

4.3.3 Distribution of These Flat Discs to the Thathera

4.3.4 Giving Shape to These Flat Discs
4.3.5. Process of Joining the Different Portions of the Utensil

4.3.6. Cleaning and Washing of These Utensils

4.3.7. Making Patterns on These Utensils

4.4 Skill Set of the Thathera

4.5 Different Tools Used by the Thathera For Making Utensil

4.6 Summary of Views Presented By the Thathera Regarding Their Work Experience, and Various Issues Faced by Them and General Attitude of People Regarding These Utensils

4.7 Summarised Views of the Kasera Regarding the Issues and Current Situations

4.8 Summary of Transact Walk Interviews to Know the Views Regarding These Non-Ferrous Hand-Beaten Utensils

4.9 Key Person Interviews of Opinion Leaders in Jandiala Guru

4.10 Emerge, Peak and Decline of the Hand-Beaten Metal Craft

4.11 Markets and Demands in the Past and the Present

4.11.1 Prevalent Demand

4.12 Functional Place of these Utensils

4.13 Various Factors That Impacted Upon Dissolution of the Craft

4.13.1 Raw Material

4.13.2 Less Demand

4.13.3 Various Effects of Working Condition

4.13.3.1 Physiological Effects
4.13.3.2 Psychological Effects
4.13.4 Lack of Financial As Well As Moral Support From Within the Family
4.13.5 Sale of the Alternate Material
4.13.6 The Foundry
4.13.7 Diversification into Other Occupation:
4.13.8 Increasing Financial Burden
4.13.9 Unawareness About Various Government Schemes

5. CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATIONS

5.1 Safeguarding the Living Heritage as Embodied by the Thathera
5.2 Sustenance of the Crafts
   5.2.1 Some Encouraging Initiatives for the Crafts
5.3 Salient Findings of the Research
5.4 Findings and Constraints in Handicraft Sector
   5.4.1 Scattered Working, Dissipated Efforts
   5.4.2 Credit Access
   5.4.3 Empowerment Required
   5.4.4 Archaic Methodology
   5.4.5 Sporadic Exposure to Markets
   5.4.6 Influx of Machine-Made Products
   5.4.7 Capacity Building
   5.4.8 Innovations in Design
5.5 The XII Five-Year Plan Envisions For the Handicraft Sector: A Vision
   5.5.1 Product Development and production
   5.5.2 Marketing and Compliance
5.5.3 Infrastructure Development
5.5.4 Livelihood and working Environment

5.6 Policy Implications On Preservation and Propagation of the Hand-Beaten Metal Craft

5.6.1 Grouping of the Craft persons
  5.6.1.1 Joint Liability Groups (JLGs)
  5.6.1.2 Self Help Groups (SHGs)
  5.6.1.3 Activity-Based Groups (ABGs)

5.6.2 Raw Material Bank

5.6.3 Wholesale and Retail Marketing Outlets

5.7 Recommendations For Policy Implementation

5.8 Visions and Strategy for the 12th Five-Year Plan Period

REFERENCES CITED

APPENDICES