

APPENDIX - B

Table-3

Area-wise Distribution Of Attitude Items.
(Literal Translation Of The Original Bengali Version)

Sl. No.	Attitude Items
Health:
1	You are to suffer from diarrhoea.
2	You are susceptible to cold.
3	you suffer from skin diseases.
4	you feel troubled by attacks of reeling and vomiting.
5	It takes time to get yourself recover from cold.
6	You are to suffer from asthma or respiratory trouble.
7	In bed you have to wait for sleep.
8	You feel not-fresh after rouse.
9	You are worried for your ill health.
10	You are to suffer from tooth-ache.
11	Your eyes are much too sensitive to light and sun rays.
12	Under the exposure of sun you feel unwell.
13	You suffer from head-ache or ear-ache.
14	Prints become hazy when you do with the books during study.
15	Being wake-up from sleep after dream you feel thirsty.
16	You are indifferent to take care of your health.
17	Little labour makes you tired.
18	You feel sleepy during your working hours.
19	You are tempted to take food, no matter whether you feel hungry.
Temperament:
20	You think yourself mentally weak.
21	You feel yourself very lonely.
22	You are a ne'er-do-well boy.
23	You are afraid of sleeping alone.
24	You get perturbed when expectation falls short.
25	You get disappointed easily.
26	You think that success is impossible in your existing riddle of problems.
27	You are worried of apprehending danger.
28	Life seems to you but a wreath of disappointments.
29	You get worried on a very insignificant matter.
30	You feel embarrassed to face criticism.
31	You suffer from undue belittling.
32	You have lost hope of your future.
33	You get excited on trifles.
34	You suffer from a lot of penitence for any of your past mesdeed.

(ii)

Table-3 (contd.)

Sl. No.	Attitude Items
Temperament:
35	You cannot get rid of a memory of your past disgrace.
36	You get worried for yourself in the context of vast unemployment in the country.
37	A feeling that you are a source of other's attraction puts you in embarrassment.
38	You become arrogant if the things are not done as you like.
39	You are sentimental.
40	You get ill-tempered without reasons.
41	You cannot bear in mind anything for your absent-mindedness during work.
42	You are blamed for nothing.
43	You want to die because of your misfortune.
Attitude towards Parents:
44	You regard your father as an ideal of manhood.
45	Your parents treat you as if you were still a child.
46	Your father does not like your peers.
47	Your parents are indifferent to you.
48	Your opinion differs with that of your mother's opinion.
49	Your parents find fault at your conduct.
50	Your father becomes insensate when enraged.
51	Your parents discourage you.
52	Your mother's short-temper compels you to be off from her.
53	Your parents criticise you unjustly.
54	Your parents do not trust you.
55	Your parents expect too much from you.
56	Your parents expect that you should obey them.
57	Things as you wish to do is not upto your parents likings.
58	Your life becomes drudgery because of your mother's misbehaviour.
59	Your parents' behaviour seem to you unbearable.
60	Your parents seem to you with out-of-date ideas.
61	The attitude of your father excites you.
Attitude towards Family Environment:
62	Everybody of your family trusts you.
63	You feel most contented at home.
64	You seem to be misunderstood by you siblings.
65	Your superiors find fault at your conduct.
66	You consider your family members to be quite happy.
67	You are discontented with the conduct of your family members.

(iii)

Table-3 (Contd.)

Sl. No.	Attitude Items
68	You are agrieved with the too-much of your family regulations.
69	You sustain an intense desire to run away from home.
70	Your family responsibility seem to be a great burden to you.
71	You have to stay with short-tempered family members.
72	Family quarrel becomes the daily incident in your house.
73	It is hard for you to keep a pleasant disposition at home.
74	Everyone in your family is curious enough about your personal affairs.
75	In your family the superiors seem to be unduly ruly to the minors.
76	You seem to be neglected by the other members of your family.
77	Your superiors rule you unduly.
78	According to you your family members seem to be selfish.
79	Your opinion differs with that of your family members.
80	Your family members misunderstand you.
81	Your relatives avoid you.
82	Your version carries weight to your family members.
Sociability:
83	You are apt to be free to the unknown.
84	You feel shy to recite or act on the stage.
85	You feel uneasy to speak voluntarily in public.
86	You get perplexed being addressed suddenly.
87	You feel embarrassed to make intimacy with boys/girls freely.
88	You find pleasure to participate in public meeting.
89	You get along like others in festivals or meetings.
90	In social functions you feel yourself happy amidst peers.
91	You are indifferent in maintaining social obligations with your relatives.
92	You find it difficult to do the work to the best of your ability when invigilated by others.
93	Due to the apprehension of unforeseen troubles you do not generally accept any portfolio of the club or group you belong.

Table-3 (contd.)

Sl. No.	Attitude Items
94	You are well poised in dealing with public.
95	During discussion you never hesitate to speak even unpleasant.
96	You hesitate to enter into a room where a group of people remain busy in discussion.
97	In public gathering you feel like becoming an object of others' attention.
98	You converse confidently with strangers.
99	You keep yourself busy in social contact with your kith and kin.
100	You can express yourself freely to others.
101	You could not answer even the familiar question in the midst of a gathering.
102	You mix up freely with seniors.
103	You get pleasure in mixing with people intimately.
104	You feel embarrassed to initiate any discussion.

Personal-Social Preference:

105	You like to be acquainted closely with many people.
106	You are eager to have new friends.
107	You prefer to remain intimate to your neighbours.
108	You like to remain aloof during a community festival.
109	You intend to speak in the public-meetings.
110	You consider it to be useless to attend to social functions.
111	Usually you like to take initiative for friendship.
112	You deem it fit to have more acquaintances to prosper in life.
113	You like to play an active role on the stage in the variety performances during community festivals.
114	You like to take part of a leader to make the social function lively.
115	You are fond of entertaining others.
116	You like to be introduced to the dignitaries of the society.
117	You like to gossip with your friends during leisure.
118	You want to avoid the company of juniors.
119	You prefer to avoid your known faces in the streets.
120	You are fond of accepting the responsibility of developing new plans or conducting others in a programme.
121	You prefer to converse with the fellow-passangers during travelling in train or bus.

Table-3 (contd.)

Sl. No.	Attitude Items
Attitude Towards Educational System:
122	Education is of no use in solving the problems of daily life.
123	Man can learn through education as to how to use his leisure fruitfully.
124	Government should take overall educational responsibilities.
125	Now-a-days it is difficult to get an employment with higher education.
126	Modern education system is full of pomp ^{and} granduer.
127	The value of secondary education cannot be denied.
128	Education is the head for effective investment of Government money.
129	The aim of education cannot be made successful unless it becomes job oriented.
130	Educated people can progress easily in business and industry.
131	Present day education is much more a bookish type.
132	One can be benefited more by a course of practical training than attending a course in the secondary classes.
133	Education only makes a person discontented more and more.
134	Education makes the students better citizens.
135	Now-a-days education is of no help in getting a job.
136	Adequate investigation is an imperative prior to make a major change in the educational system.
Attitude Towards Legal System:
137	In the present police set up it is quite impossible to control the crimes like stealing and decoiting.
138	The court of law is indifferent to the security of human life.
139	On the whole, all Judges are just.
140	For legal flows the guilty persons often get acquitted.
141	Criminals are always detected and punished.
142	On the whole, police personnel are honest.
143	Striker-labours of the industry should be punished severely.
144	Court's verdict are always just.
145	Monetary strength can solve any dispute favourably in the Court of Law.
146	Police personnel abet in materialising the personal interest of the wealthy.
147	People in general have lost faith upon law due to its partiality for the few with prerogatives.

Table-3 (Contd.)

Sl. No.	Attitude Items
148	It is not advisable for the industrial workers to be involved in any political party.
149	The verdict of Judges in Courts are usually prejudiced.
150	The Court of Law gives priority to the protection of property.
Attitude Towards Economic System:
151	On the whole the economic policy of our country is well planned and determined.
152	Economic progress of our country is not possible unless agricultural products are more produced.
153	During economic crisis money should be taken from the rich and distributed to the poor.
154	Removal of financial difficulties of the educated unemployed persons is the responsibility of Government.
155	The expansion of the export system is essential for the economic progress of our country.
156	Hoarding wealth by a minority leads to the financial stringency of the majority.
157	Our economic policy is not sound in eliminating poverty.
158	If we could have a more developed economic system we could expect a fall in the rate of crime.
159	The rate of income tax should be increased for the higher income groups.
160	Government should take steps to limit the amount of profit of the businessmen.
161	After demise major part of a rich man's wealth should be converted to the State's property.
162	The economic condition of the country would be handicapped if the industry is being controlled by the greedy businessmen.
163	Social problems could not be solved pending the extensive changes of economic system.
164	There is a probability of injustice in the distribution of wealth in our economic system.
165	Nationalisation of the large scale industries helps to improve the economic condition of the country.
166	Private ownership of property is necessary for economic progress.

Table-3 (contd.)

Sl. No.	Attitude Items
Social Beliefs:
167	An offender pays back his own coin.
168	One's social recognition depends on his wealth, no matter how he earned it.
169	Superstitions should not be indulged under the veil of religion.
170	Demoralised members of the society cannot build it up ideally.
171	Honest way of living never makes a man millionaire.
172	Poor but educated is regarded by all.
173	An honest man is seldom accomplished.
174	The younger generation deviates from right track due to dearth of an ideal figure in a country.
175	The parents of a small family can rear up their children well.
176	A society cannot flourish by looking down even a small community.
177	A starve has right to steal food.
178	Communalism adds to unpleasant social problems.
179	If necessary goals should be achieved by evading laws.
180	Charity is an atonement of rich people against their dishonest earning.
181	Helping the destitutes carries no social value.