

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to take the opportunity to express my deepest sense of gratitude to my supervisor Prof. K. C. Sarma of the department of Instrumentation & USIC, Gauhati University for giving me opportunity to work under his able guidance and providing constant support and encouragement which kept the hopes in my mind alive to complete the thesis.

I am specially grateful to Dr. Mothura Nath Bora, HOD of Physics, D. R. College, Golaghat, for introducing me to the wonderful world of thin film and constantly reminding me that I have to complete this task.

I, extend my gratitude to Dr. P. C. Saikia, Principal, D. R. College for his care and hope that one more member of his family achieves this academic milestone.

Three persons, without whose help the submission of this thesis would have been impossible are Dr. Dulen Saikia, Department of Physics, Sibsagar College, Dr. Sumbit Chaliha, Department of Physics, Bahona College and Dr. Lakshi Saikia, Materials Science Division of NEIST. These three wonderful persons not only helped me characterizing my films, but also enriched my mind. Every time I talked to them, I became a bit more knowledgeable and some new thoughts developed in my mind.

I am grateful to Dr. U. Sarma, HOD, Department of Instrumentation & USIC for his support and care.

I, express my thanks to all the faculty members, research scholars and office staff of the Department of Instrumentation & USIC, Gauhati University for their help. My special thanks goes to Prof. P. H. Talukdar, Dr. S. Karmakar, Dr. S. Bordoloi and Dr. Debashis Saikia.

I am thankful to Dr. Prince Musahary of D. K. D College, Dergaon for his constant encouragement. The support provided by Dr. Monuj Hazarika, Dept. of Chemistry, D. K. D. College, at a crucial stage of completing the thesis will always remain at the bottom of my heart.

Some fruitful suggestions have been provided by Dr. Nripen Kumar Boruah, Dr. Paban Boruah, Dr. Amal Kumar Sarma, Dr. Suvangshu Dutta and Dr. Pawan Chetri. I shall always remember their help. I am thankful to the retired principals of my college Dr. T. C. Bhuyan, Mr. K. B. Hazarika, Dr. A. K. Boruah and Mr. P. C. Saikia. I offer my heartfelt thanks to my departmental colleagues Mr. D. Gogoi, Dr. U. Mcfarlane, Dr. U. Jamil and Mr. G. Bortamuly. I extend my thanks to all the teaching and non-teaching staff of D. R. College.

I offer my thanks to Materials Science Division, NEIST, Jorhat, SAIF, CUSAT, Cochin, Department of Physics, Sibsagar College, Department of Physics, Manipur University, SAIF, NEHU, Shillong and CIF, IIT Guwahati for providing sample testing facilities. I can not forget the help offered by Dr. M. Singh, Manipur University.

Finally, I am indebted to my family members including my parents, my better half and my in-laws for the sacrifices they have to make and specially my four years old son Aaradhyo, who at this tender age, learnt the importance of 'waiting' till his father complete the thesis.
