ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I owe this doctoral compilation to the unstinted support of my family, friends and well wishers. My heartfelt gratitude to my esteemed guide Dr. R. Ramakrishnan (Scientist-G, National Institute of Epidemiology) for his immense help, valuable guidance, effective supervision, stimulating suggestions and encouragement at all times while carrying out this research work. Without his motivation and encouragement, my thesis would never have started and seen completion. I also owe my gratitude to Dr. M. Subbiah, for his valuable suggestions that gave me the impetus to stay focused.

I am deeply indebted to my friends K. Vaitheswaran and S. Sakthivel for their timely intervention and valuable contributions to my work. A special word of thanks to Dr. Seetaram Vedantam for his valuable inputs to my research work. My sincere thanks to D. Dhanamjalyulu and Kokila, for all the technical expertise. I am very much thankful to Dr. A. Loganathan, Dr. K. Senthamarai Kannan, Dr. P. Arumugam and all other Professors at Department of Statistics, Manonmaniam Sundaranar University. Also, I thank Dr. Ravishankar, Dr. Khadar Babu, Dr. Mokesh, Dr. Neeraja and Mr. Venkatesan Chakrapani for their support.

I would not have completed my research work without the unconditional affection and blessings of my mother Mrs. Nirmala Boopalan, support of my wife Mrs. Kavitha who needs a special appreciation for understanding me and showing lot of patience during all these years and allowing me doing my research work, taking over the responsibilities that I was handling. A special mention is needed in this regard for the help and support of my other family members my brothers, sister-in-laws and my daughters. It is indeed my duty to thank Mrs. Swarnalatha Ramakrishnan for the encouragement.

None of this would ever have been possible without the blessings of the Lord Almighty who answered my prayers always and gave me the mental, emotional and physical strength to tide over all the difficulties that I encountered during the tenure of this doctoral work.
