ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

No research work can be accomplished without the adequate guidance, thorough orientation and proper supervision of the people associated with the Doctor of Philosophy. A formal statement of acknowledgement will hardly meet the ends of justice in matter of expression of my deep, profound sense of gratitude and obligation to my esteemed advisor and supervisor, Dr. Vandana Ajay Kumar, Associate Professor, Department of Laws, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for her invaluable help, ever encouraging attitude, superb guidance and affectionate nature from genesis to culmination of this study which has been a source of encouragement to research on an untouched and multi-dimensional topic having relevance to law, economics, commerce etc.

My sincere gratitude is also to Prof. Vijay Nagpal, Chairman, Department of Laws, Panjab University, Chandigarh and other faculty members of the department for their encouragement and kind help in spite of their busy academic schedules.

I am also thankful to the Library Staff of the Departmental, Panjab University, Main and other libraries, visited for reference for all their cooperation and immense help during my study.

I find no words to acknowledge in a formal manner the love, affection and encouragement showered by my parents, my in-laws family and my dear husband, Mr. Mandeep Singh Gill, to me throughout the work, which has gratified and embellished the work.

The inspiration for this study has been drawn from various sources. I have taken utmost care to acknowledge these sources in footnotes and in the bibliography. Anything missing due to an oversight is deeply regretted.
Last but not the least; I thank the Almighty for bestowing upon me His blessings. Only God has removed all hindrances in my way, for completion of this Dissertation.
