ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to my Supervisor Prof. Yogendra Singh, who provided me invaluable assistance during the course of my work. I am especially thankful for his encouragement, which motivated me to work on this topic. I must also express thanks for his comments and suggestions at every stage in the process of writing this dissertation. His valuable insights were noteworthy in fabrication and modification of the thesis, to shape it presentable.

I take this opportunity to show gratitude to my Co-Supervisor Prof. K. L. Sharma who provided me invaluable time notwithstanding his busy university engagements. I am highly obliged to him that despite his preoccupied schedule he kindly agreed to accommodate me in the long list of pupils and showered me with his wisdom.

This is high time when I must express my deepest sense of gratitude to my parents for their contribution to my carrier building. This is the sincere encouragement of my Mummy and Papa Smt. and Sri U.K. Verma that I manage to write the Dissertation. I am especially thankful to my brother and sisters Mini, Sweety and Sonu who always kept reminding me towards my academic prerequisites. My brother in laws' Sudhanshu and Suneet deserve special gratitude in this regard.

The contributions of my Parents in Law's needs special mention over here. My Mother and Father in laws' Smt. and Sri P.S. Sinha always instigated to complete the research work on time and tried their level best to render me the best assistance possible. I am thankful to my Sister in law Suman didi who always inquired and encouraged me for Ph.D. I am highly obliged to Sri Sanjay Srivastava and Sri Vikash Srivastava of Singrauli who arranged and coordinated for my stay at the project.

I am especially thankful to Pradeep who took all the pain and provided me congenial atmosphere by offering his accommodation at JNU. I would like to express my thanks to my relatives and friends for their valuable contributions. It is really difficult to express my gratitude to all my close friends who provided every possible help to complete this dissertation on time. This list is so long that it is impossible for me to express my thanks to each of them individually.
I am thankful to Sri Virkush, Manager R&R, NTPC, Corporate office for his help and assistance. Ms. Madhu Kohli, deserve special praise for her contributions. Without her help, this project could have been a great riddle for me. I am highly gratitude for Sri Avdesh Kumar, and Ms. Rajul Dixit of Srijan Lokhit Samiti, Vindhyanagar. I must acknowledge my sincere thanks to Sri Vinay Singh, Preeti Printing Press, Sri C.K. Mishra, Freelance Journalist and Sri Ajay Pathak, Ravi Stationery who provided me best possible help at Vindhayachal to complete the Survey with least discomfort. Sri Ram Narayan of Rihand stands same level of acknowledgement as their counterparts at Vindhayachal.

It will go without saying if I don’t mention the contributions of my beloved wife Runu, who took all pain and provided me every possible support to complete the research work. She patiently sat with me on the computers for data feeding and analysis. Her insights and wisdom were thoroughly utilized during the course of writing this thesis to produce least possible errors and most presentable volume. Without her help, co-operation and forbearance, this proposition could have been a distant dream.

Lastly, I am obliged to JNU, ICSSR and Ratan Tata library for their contributions to provide me the books and journals that I needed to consult.
