Acknowledgement

First of all I would like to give an infinite gratitude to my beloved parents for keeping faith in me and allowing me to carry out research work, far away from home. I am very thankful to my father who gave me much freedom about my career that I can take any decision on my own. I am obliged for his unconditional love and for giving me the same place as boys are given in a family. This gave me strength, courage and confidence to live alone far from my family and to handle everything. I am grateful to my mother who provided me full support and loving atmosphere from family side after the demise of my father. I think words are not enough to express my feelings towards my parents. Without the blessings of them this work would have not been accomplished.

Then, I would like to give my heartfelt gratitude to my esteemed supervisor Dr. Vinod Patidar who taught me everything during research period not only about research but more than that. I am very thankful for his continuous support, encouragement, motivational words, patience and time to time advice. I am also thankful to him for his understanding during difficult personal situations, his sense of humor and his generosity. I am grateful for his proper guidance and devotion towards my thesis without which it was not possible to accomplish this work.

I am very thankful to DST, Gov. of India for providing me Junior Research Fellowship which supported me financially for three years of research work.

I am extremely thankful to Mr. Ashok Ghosh (President, SPSU, Udaipur) and Ms. Rinu Ghosh (Vice President, SPSU, Udaipur) for their support, appreciation and also for allowing me to stay in SPSU hostel during my research work.

I wish to express my deep sense of respect and gratitude to Prof. P. C. Deka (Vice Chancellor SPSU, Udaipur) for his appreciation, care and motivation.

I am highly thankful to Prof. Achintaya Chaudhary (Dean, School of Engineering, SPSU) for needful suggestions and comments.
I also express my gratitude to Prof. K. K. Sud for his affection, perfect guidance and valuable advice.

I would like to acknowledge my advisory committee members Prof. Ghanshyam Purohit, Department of Physics and Dr. D. S. Chouhan, Department of Mathematics for their appreciation, guidance and timely advice.

I express my gratitude to Dr. O. P. Suwalka, Department of Physics for his motivation and encouragement.

I am also thankful to my colleague Mr. Prithvi Singh for his help and providing friendly atmosphere.

I would like to give a special thanks to two persons in my life. First, my M.Sc. Classmate Ms. Premrlata Arora whose magical words kept me stay here to complete my work and second one is Mr. Akhilesh Vyas (Lab Assistant, SPSU, Udaipur), who helped and guided me as an elder brother in every situation.

I am very thankful to all SPSU staff members for providing me a healthy and caring atmosphere during hard situations.

Thanks to all my teachers at school and college level who raised me and made me reach to this level of career. I am very thankful to all my friends for their love and their direct or indirect support.

I would like to acknowledge my landlord Mr. B. L. Nagda and his entire family at Udaipur to provide me a family atmosphere and treating me as their own child.

Last but not the least I am very much grateful to my elder sister Dr. Antika Sharma for making me strong, to my bhaiya Mr. Ankur Sharma and bhabhi Ms. Anvi Sharma for their love and emotional support, to my younger brother Arun Sharma for his appreciation and love.
