ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I am extremely grateful to my guide Dr. B. D. Gahelot, Reader and head of the Department of commerce, Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Nanded for his valuable guidance and continued encouragement during the difficult phase of the compilation and completion of this work. Inspite of his other time consuming responsibilities and engagements he never turned me away, whenever, at whatever hour of the day I knocked his door.

I feel it is my duty to record my indebtedness to my Principal Dr. B. S. Dhongle, Vice Principal Dr. D.L. Reddy, Prof. G. C. Badne, Prof. V. D. Chandanshive, Department of English and my Departmental Colleagues in the college for helpful assistance and also for stimulating me to go for that extra bit of achievement and excellence in the present study.

The Librarian of the Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya Mr. Bulbule, Mr. Wahule Mr. Waghmare and his staff helped me in extending all the facilities available with their library.

I would like to thank Mr. Laxmikant, Mr. Mirza F. Baig, Mr. Mahesh Kodgire and Kishor Sonwane who helped me for collecting Photos.

I am indebted to Late Mrs. Gahelot who was the first to stimulate me to go for that extra bit of achievement. I am also thankful to Miss. Manisha, Miss Chilpa and Master Pavan Gahelot.

III
It was my good fortune to engage Mr. M.S. Siddiqui who sat at the computer desk untiringly to produce script of this thesis.

Above all, the many Balutedar and Alutedar respondent who bravely showed their forbearance in the face of delicate and searching scrutiny of their "affairs" deserve my gratitude, and I warmly appreciate their kindness.

My wife Sow. Sunanda, Son Pritam and Daughter Pallavi were put to a lot of inconvenience during the research work. Their devoted care enabled me to hasten the completion of this thesis.
