Appendices

Questionnaire to the Teachers:

Teachers’ Questionnaire:

Name: Thambi Joseph
Qualification: M.A, M.A.Ed.
Years of experience in teaching English: 5

1. Are you using English language strictly in your classroom to communicate and explain the lessons?
   Yes, But Sometimes I use Telugu language also.

2. How do the students respond, if you use only English in your classroom?
   Few students won’t comfortable.

3. Are you using audio-visual aids in the classroom?
   Yes
   a. If yes, how are you using?
      According to the lesson
   b. If no, why are you not using?

4. Are you successful in using audio-visual aids?
   Yes

5. Do you use audio-visual aids for developing communication skills?
   Yes, but in language lab

6. Is there any rule in the college that you should use audio-visual aids in the class?
   Yes

7. Do you use technology as per the need of the lesson or do you create the need to use technology?
   As per the need of the lesson

8. What would be the students’ response when you use audio-visual aids to develop oral communication skills?
   They are motivated very easily
Teachers' Questionnaire:

Name: L. Sagarpa Rani
Qualification: M. Phil, M. Sc
Years of experience in teaching English: 2

1. Are you using English language strictly in your classroom to communicate and explain the lessons?
   Yes.
2. How do the students respond, if you use only English in your classroom?
   They like this method
3. Are you using audio-visual aids in the classroom?
   Yes
   a. If yes, how are you using?
      To create interest and motivate
   b. If no, why are you not using?
4. Are you successful in using audio-visual aids?
   Yes very well
5. Do you use audio-visual aids for developing communication skills?
   Some times I use
6. Is there any rule in the college that you should use audio-visual aids in the class?
   Yes.
7. Do you use technology as per the need of the lesson or do you create the need to use technology?
   I try to use in all my classes
8. What would be the students' response when you use audio-visual aids to develop oral communication skills?
   Students like this method, because it creates interest.
Teachers’ Questionnaire:

Name: Narayana J
Qualification: M.A., B.Ed., MPhil
Years of experience in teaching English: 6

1. Are you using English language strictly in your classroom to communicate and explain the lessons?
   Yes

2. How do the students respond, if you use only English in your classroom?
   Students understand very well

3. Are you using audio-visual aids in the classroom?
   Yes
   a. If yes, how are you using?
      to explain the lessons
   b. If no, why are you not using?

4. Are you successful in using audio-visual aids?
   Yes

5. Do you use audio-visual aids for developing communication skills?
   No, we use debate, group discussions etc.

6. Is there any rule in the college that you should use audio-visual aids in the class?
   Yes

7. Do you use technology as per the need of the lesson or do you create the need to use technology?
   As per the need of the lesson

8. What would be the students’ response when you use audio-visual aids to develop oral communication skills?
   They feel relaxed and learn more
Teachers' Questionnaire:

Name: Kiranmay
Qualification: M.A. B.Ed
Years of experience in teaching English: 2

1. Are you using English language strictly in your classroom to communicate and explain the lessons?
   I am trying

2. How do the students respond, if you use only English in your classroom?
   I feel that they lose interest easily

3. Are you using audio-visual aids in the classroom?
   Yes
   a. If yes, how are you using?
      I use to create interest
   b. If no, why are you not using?

4. Are you successful in using audio-visual aids?
   Yes

5. Do you use audio-visual aids for developing communication skills?
   Yes

6. Is there any rule in the college that you should use audio-visual aids in the class?
   Yes

7. Do you use technology as per the need of the lesson or do you create the need to use technology?
   I create need to use technology to make teaching more interesting

8. What would be the students' response when you use audio-visual aids to develop oral communication skills?
   They find this method as play-way learning method.
Teachers’ Questionnaire:

Name: Vijay Raju
Qualification: M.A, B.Ed
Years of experience in teaching English: 3

1. Are you using English language strictly in your classroom to communicate and explain the lessons?
   Yes, but according to the students’ response.

2. How do the students respond, if you use only English in your classroom?
   Sometimes they feel bored.

3. Are you using audio-visual aids in the classroom?
   Yes
   a. If yes, how are you using?
      To make lesson more interesting
   b. If no, why are you not using?

4. Are you successful in using audio-visual aids?
   Yes

5. Do you use audio-visual aids for developing communication skills?
   I use

6. Is there any rule in the college that you should use audio-visual aids in the class?
   Yes

7. Do you use technology as per the need of the lesson or do you create the need to use technology?
   I try to use audio-visual aids in all my classes.

8. What would be the students’ response when you use audio-visual aids to develop oral communication skills?
   Students respond well and they remember well.
Pre-test to the Students:

1. Do you speak English in your classroom for conversations?
   - Most of the times
2. Does your syllabus give you an opportunity to develop oral communication skills?
   - Yes
3. Do your teachers use English in teaching without using mother tongue?
   - Yes
4. Are you aware that audio-visual aids can help in the best way to develop oral communication skills?
   - Yes
5. Do you have audio-visual aids in your classroom at present?
   - Yes
6. Do your teachers use them during the lesson?
   - Sometimes
7. Are your teachers using audio-visual aids for developing oral communication skills?
   - Very rare
8. How are your teachers using audio-visual aids? Do you find them interesting?
   - Yes
9. Are your teachers using them as you wish them to use / according to you?
   - No
10. Are your teachers using audio-visual aids as nominal or adapting to the situations?
    - Nominal
11. Do you like using audio-visual aids in teaching the lessons?
    - Yes
12. In your view, how the audio-visual aids are used for developing oral communication skills?
    - Practice, Explain
13. What is your opinion of language classroom structure?
    - Teaching Language Skills
Students' Pre-test Questionnaire

1. Do you speak English in your classroom for conversations?
   Sometimes, Mostly in English

2. Does your syllabus give you an opportunity to develop oral communication skills?
   NO, Not in all ways

3. Do your teachers use English in teaching without using mother tongue?
   NO

4. Are you aware that audio-visual aids can help in the best way to develop oral communication skills?
   YES

5. Do you have audio-visual aids in your classroom at present?
   NO

6. Do your teachers use them during the lesson?
   NO

7. Are your teachers using audio-visual aids for developing oral communication skills?
   NO

8. How are your teachers using audio-visual aids? Do you find them interesting?
   They are not using, would be interesting if used

9. Are your teachers using them as you wish them to use / according to you?
   NO

10. Are your teachers using audio-visual aids as nominal or adapting to the situations?
    NO

11. Do you like using audio-visual aids in teaching the lessons? YES

12. In your view, how the audio-visual aids are used for developing oral communication skills?
    To promote our innovative ideas

13. What is your opinion of language classroom structure?
    Good
Students' Pre-test Questionnaire

Name: Vinay Kumar

1. Do you speak English in your classroom for conversations?
   - Sometimes

2. Does your syllabus give you an opportunity to develop oral communication skills?
   - Yes

3. Do your teachers use English in teaching without using mother tongue?
   - Sometimes

4. Are you aware that audio-visual aids can help in the best way to develop oral communication skills?
   - Yes

5. Do you have audio-visual aids in your classroom at present?
   - Yes

6. Do your teachers use them during the lesson?
   - Sometimes

7. Are your teachers using audio-visual aids for developing oral communication skills?
   - Rare/seldom

8. How are your teachers using audio-visual aids? Do you find them interesting?
   - Yes

9. Are your teachers using them as you wish them to use / according to you?
   - No

10. Are your teachers using audio-visual aids as nominal or adapting to the situations?
     - Nominal

11. Do you like using audio-visual aids in teaching the lessons?
     - Yes I like

12. In your view, how the audio-visual aids are used for developing oral communication skills?
    - Good for activity based learning

13. What is your opinion of language classroom structure?
    - Which develops language...
1. Do you speak English in your classroom for conversations?
   Sometimes we speak English but for most of time we speak telugu.

2. Does your syllabus give you an opportunity to develop oral communication skills?
   We can develop vocabulary but not communication skills.

3. Do your teachers use English in teaching without using mother tongue?
   Sometimes they will teach in telugu.

4. Are you aware that audio-visual aids can help in the best way to develop oral communication skills?
   We are not aware of audio-visual.

5. Do you have audio-visual aids in your classroom at present?
   Audio-visuals are present but we don't use present in classrooms.

6. Do your teachers use them during the lesson?
   No, the teachers don't use during the lesson.

7. Are your teachers using audio-visual aids for developing oral communication skills?
   No, but they will use when required.

8. How are your teachers using audio-visual aids? Do you find them interesting?
   No, they don't use them.

9. Are your teachers using them as you wish them to use / according to you?
   No, the teachers are doing as we wish.

10. Are your teachers using audio-visual aids as nominal or adapting to the situations?
    No.

11. Do you like using audio-visual aids in teaching the lessons?
    No, we don't like audio-visual but for sometimes.

12. In your view, how the audio-visual aids are used for developing oral communication skills?
    We can develop communication skills.

13. What is your opinion of language classroom structure?
    Language classroom structure is better than audio-visual.
Post-test to the Students:

1. Is this method of developing oral communication skills through audio-visual aids interesting to you?
   Yes

2. Do you feel that this method is the best in developing oral communication skills?
   Most of the Times

3. Did you find this way of practicing and learning communication skills interesting?
   Yes

4. Do the audio-visual activities help you best, comparing with your previous classes?
   Yes

5. Do you consider this method is successful in motivating and very useful tool in making you to speak in English?
   Very useful and successful

6. If you were given chance to choose between traditional and audio-visual method of teaching, which one do you prefer?
   Audio-visual

7. Do you think, it helps you concentrate and motivate yourself if materials are planned according to your own interest?
   Yes

8. Now, do you feel that you yourself can develop oral communication skills by using audio-visuals which are available to you?
   Yes, with guidelines

9. Do you feel that if you keep on using this method for developing oral communication skills, will you excel in your career?
   Yes, I am sure

10. Comparatively, which one do you prefer for developing your communication skills?
    Prescribed materials or materials which are selected through constructivist approach.
    Constructivist Approach
Students' Post-test:

1. Is this method of developing oral communication skills through audio-visual aids interesting to you?
   Yes

2. Do you feel that this method is the best in developing oral communication skills?
   Yes

3. Did you find this way of practicing and learning communication skills interesting?
   Yes

4. Do the audio-visual activities help you best, comparing with your previous classes?
   Yes

5. Do you consider this method is successful in motivating and very useful tool in making you to speak in English?
   Yes

6. If you were given chance to choose between traditional and audio-visual method of teaching, which one do you prefer?
   Depending on concepts which are to be explained.

7. Do you think, it helps you concentrate and motivate yourself if materials are planned according to your own interest?
   Yes

8. Now, do you feel that you yourself can develop oral communication skills by using audio-visuals which are available to you?
   Yes

9. Do you feel that if you keep on using this method for developing oral communication skills, will you excel in your career?
   Yes

10. Comparatively, which one do you prefer for developing your communication skills?
    Prescribed materials or materials which are selected through constructivist approach.
Students' Post-test:

1. Is this method of developing oral communication skills through audio-visual aids interesting to you?
   - Yes, very good

2. Do you feel that this method is the best in developing oral communication skills?
   - Yes

3. Did you find this way of practicing and learning communication skills interesting?
   - Interesting

4. Do the audio-visual activities help you best, comparing with your previous classes?
   - Yes

5. Do you consider this method is successful in motivating and very useful tool in making you to speak in English?
   - Very useful and good motivating

6. If you were given chance to choose between traditional and audio-visual method of teaching, which one do you prefer?
   - Audio-visual, modern method

7. Do you think it helps you concentrate and motivate yourself if materials are planned according to your own interest?
   - Yes

8. Now, do you feel that you yourself can develop oral communication skills by using audio-visuals which are available to you?
   - Yes and can

9. Do you feel that if you keep on using this method for developing oral communication skills, will you excel in your career?
   - Yes, sure

10. Comparatively, which one do you prefer for developing your communication skills?
    Prescribed materials or materials which are selected through constructivist approach.
    - Audio-visual method of Teaching, planned with the help of learners.
Students’ Post-test:

1. Is this method of developing oral communication skills through audio-visual aids interesting to you?
   Yes, it is used for developing communication skills.

2. Do you feel that this method is the best in developing oral communication skills?
   Yes, it is best in developing.

3. Did you find this way of practicing and learning communication skills interesting?
   Yes, it is interesting.

4. Do the audio-visual activities help you best, comparing with your previous classes?
   Yes, the activities help best comparing with before classes.

5. Do you consider this method is successful in motivating and very useful tool in making you to speak in English?
   This method is useful but when teachers speak we can good conversation.

6. If you were given chance to choose between traditional and audio-visual method of teaching, which one do you prefer?
   We prefer to audio-visual method.

7. Do you think it helps you concentrate and motivate yourself if materials are planned according to your own interest?
   We can concentrate according to our own interest.

8. Now, do you feel that you yourself can develop oral communication skills by using audio-visuals which are available to you?
   Yes, we can develop communication skills.

9. Do you feel that if you keep on using this method for developing oral communication skills, will you excel in your career?
   Yes, we can excel in our career but when can develop by listening to faculty.

10. Comparatively, which one do you prefer for developing your communication skills?
    Prescribed materials or materials which are selected through constructivist approach.
    Mostly we prefer to audio-visuals.