ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In successfully completing a major study like the present one, scores of individuals as well as institutions come to the aid of the Researcher. It is different to record my gratitude individually to all those persons and institutions; however, it is of to belittle their contribution for the completion of this study.

Needless to say that I owe my profound gratitude to Prof. Sudha Pai, my supervisor for her unfailing guidance and way of analysing the problem give me the necessary perspective and direction for my study.

I also express my gratitude to Prof. Manaranjan Mohanty, University of Delhi, Dr. Pralay Ranjan Kanungo, Centre for Political Studies, JNU, Prof. Sukdev Nanda, a former Prof. of Sambalpur University, Orissa for their timely guidance and suggestions.

I am extremely grateful to Mr. Sarat Kar, ex-speaker (2000-04) and Dr. Damodar Rout, General Secretary of BJD and member of O.L.A for their valuable suggestions and throughout the completion of this work.

I am grateful to my respondents the members of Orissa Legislative Assembly 2000 and 2004 and other prominent Political leaders of Orissa for their excellent response and willing cooperation. Since informations gathered from them were confidential nature. I am unable to record their names here and express my indebtedness to each of them individually. I hope they could appreciate this difficulty and overlook my omission.

Besides the respondents, record my gratitude to the librarians and the staff of Orissa Legislative Assembly, various party offices, News Paper office at Cuttack, Sapru-House Library, Parliament Library, Election Commission, Nehru Memorial Museum Library, Jawaharlal Nehru University Library, Utkal University Library (Parija Library), who are kindly made available to me for study and references the files and documents related to my study. Without their cooperation and help, I could not have covered an important aspect of my work.

Special thanks are due to my family members Baba, Maa, Mousa, Mausi, Kaka, Khudi, Anjali (Anju), Manaranjan, Basudev, Jogdish, Ratiranjan, Ajoy, Anil, Satyajit, Jhunu, Niroj, Roja, Leeja, Sanjoy, Satish, Harish Chandra, Sumitra, Sudhamayee, Sweety, Smita, Pinki, Pankajini, Deepu, Deepa, Arunawati, Dinesh and Bhоju for their untiring cooperation during my thesis writing.

I also thanks are due to my friends Bipin, PB, Ratikant, Sujeet, James, Titu, Funny, Poppi, Pappu, Debashish, Gyanna, Pinkan, Ramesh, Premananda, Kushleswer, Ashish, Ajay, Bishwanath, Nishikant, Sankrтан, Sreedhar, Sameer, Niranjan, Rajesh, Mamma (Jeetu), Lulu, Aurobindo, Bimal, Bikram, Jagannath, Bibhu, Manoj, Anindita, Paramananda, Dilip, Sushant, Bishu, Nagendra, Amresh, Prashant, Amar, Rama, Uma Bhai, Shiva Bhai and others.

This study has been greatly benefited from my education at the Center for Political Studies. I am grateful to the faculty of the Centre for the encouragement and stimulation in the preparation of this work. I am, however, alone responsible for any deficiencies in it.

Finally, I express my thanks to Mr. Biswanath Bisoі, who helped me in the Statistical processing of my work and Mr. Harish Chander Upadhyaya who ungrudgingly and bravely took the pains in typing out various drafts of this thesis.

Financial assistance in the form of Senior Research Fellowship from the University Grants Commission is appreciated.

BIJAYA NANDA SEITHY