ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Though only my name appears on the cover of this thesis, a great many people have contributed to its production. I owe my gratitude to all those people who have made this thesis possible and because of whom my research experience has been one that I will cherish forever. It is my chance to show my gratitude to the well-wishers of me, from the almighty to the supporters, for this thesis to well build.

The first, I wish to express my profuse gratitude and zillion thanks to my legendary research supervisor Dr. P. Anandharajakumar, Professor & Head, Department of Rural Development, for his excellent, caring, patience and providing me with an excellent atmosphere for doing research. I have been amazingly fortunate to have an advisor to give me the freedom to explore on my own, and at the same time the guidance to recover when my steps faltered. His patience and support helped me in all the time of research and overcome many crisis situations and finish this thesis. The door to Professor’s office was always open whenever I ran into a trouble spot or had a question about my research or writing. He consistently allowed this writing to be my own work, but steered me in the right the direction whenever he thought I needed it.

I am greatly indebted to Dr. M. Suresh, Associate Professor, Department of Civil Engineering, Jayalakshmi Institute of Technology, Dharmapuri, and Dr. M. Arunkumar, Assistant Professor & Mr. K. Kalaivanan, SRF-CSIR, Centre for Applied Geology helped me for executing the technical requirements throughout the research and also their help in Remote Sensing and GIS work and I greatly acknowledge for their support.

I am highly thankful to Dr. S. Kumaravel, Assistant Professor (Senior Scale), Department of Earth Sciences, Annamalai University, Annamalai Nagar, Chidambaram for his motivation and encouragement towards the completion of this research work.

I owe my thanks and gratitude to Dr. Seshagiri, Dr. Lakshmi Narayanan, &
Dr. Pankaj Jaiswal, Geological Survey of India, Chennai for their timely help, valuable motivation and moral support during the study period.

I thank my fellow scholars and staffs Dr. R. Isai, Mr. P. Arulbalaji, Mr. R.A. Rejin Nishkalank, Mrs. S. Suhatha Rahima, Mr. Gitson Francis Pereira, Ms. Nithuraj, Ms. Varsha Prem, and Mr. V. Sudhakar in the Centre for Applied Geology, Gandhigram University. It is my great pleasure to acknowledge for their constant support and encouragement throughout my research work.

I would also thank Mrs. N. Jothi, and Mr. J. Sathiq for their help to carry out the research work.

I wish to record my sincere thanks to State Ground and Surface Water Resources Data Centre, Tharamani (SG & SWRDC), Geological Survey of India (GSI), Chennai and Soil Survey of India (SSI), Coimbatore and for their data and technical support to carry out the research work.

I wish to register my sincere thanks to Mr. D. Govindharaju, Senior Chief Engineer, & Mr. B. Prakash, Track Maintainer, Southern Railway Department, Coonoor for their rendered help during the investigation of landslide during my research studies.

I also express my sincere thanks to Mr. Senthil Kumar, “D” Section Officer, Collectorate Office, Ooty for providing the attribute data with respect to landslide information.

Most importantly, none of this would have been possible without the love and patience of my family. I would like to express my heart-felt gratitude to my family. My Husband Dr. B. Gurugnanam, is my inspiration to do the research work, rather I can say he is my brain to work out everything. As he is my better half I can’t simply say my thanks to him.

I would like to specially thank my father in law Mr. C. Balasubramanian, for showing parental care on me during my research work.

Last but not the least, I would like to thank my descendants Ms. G. Sahana and Mr. G. Siddarth, and my ancestors Mrs. S. Meera, Mr. C. Swaminathan for their continuous support, love and affection from inception and the completion of the study.

Words cannot express how thankful I am to all these people, I must emphasize that I claim as my own, any mistakes or shortcomings that remain.
