THE NATURE IS BEYOND ATTRIBUTES.
THOU ARE THE EMBODIMENT OF INTELLIGENT AND BLISS,
THE EFFULGENT SPIRIT, THE ALL PERVERDING,
THE GOAL OF KNOWLEDGE.
THOU ART THE OBJECT OF MEDITATION TO
THE SAGES, FORMLESS AND OMNIPRESENT
LIKE ETHER.
THOU ART THE SUPREME LORD,
THE SUPREME BRAHMAN.
TO THEE O LORD ! DO WE OFFER OUR WORSHIP.

DEDICATED

WITH PRAYERFUL SALUTATIONS

to my grand-father

Late. (Dr.) UPENDRA NARAYAN SINGH

(Professor and Head)

University Dept. Of Hindi.

B.N.M.U, MADHEPURA.

Who is physically no more and I feel compelled to put my deep debt of gratitude and my measureless meed of soulful tribute to him. He shall be remembered for a rare delicacy of feeling with large and generous impulses.

--- Abhishek Kumar Singh
Let noble thoughts come to us from every side.

...[Rigveda-I.89.1]

Whose greatness is not enhanced (Whilst)
Looking down (on those) below (himself)?
(Whilst) all who are looking up (to those) above
(themselves feel that they) are poor*.

...[Hitopadesha-II]

* Cast not our covetous eyes on the abstruse theory of Einstein; for this excursion, when we assess the performance of people, we should keep in mind the principle of relativity. Virat Kohli may score a century but a score of 35 by Rabindra Jadeja, the bowler, is probably more praise worthy.

Let us learn to be happy and contained with what God has blessed us and put supreme faith in him.
